Timothy Alan Milby, age 59, of Warren, died on Saturday, May 24, 2025 at Ascension Macomb Hospital in Warren of complications due to Congestive Heart Failure and his struggles with obesity. Tim was born on January 2, 1966 in Macomb to the late James and Berne Milby. After graduating from Warren High in 1984, Tim took courses at Macomb Community College in automotive mechanics and earned an associated degree as well as Michigan Certification in a number of mechanics specialties. Upon graduation, he went to work for various service stations and dealerships in the warren area. Next, he got a job as a Technician with Ford Motor company, where he worked up to the time that he was forced to go on disability due to some health issues related to carpal tunnel syndrome. He got into various hobbies; was pretty good at playing electric guitar and owned some ATVs that he would take out into the nearby Michigan forests. When his parents bought their retirement place in Caseville, he would spend a lot of time visiting them there. Tim was a member of the St. Anne Catholic Church community in the Warren area and also attended masses at St Felix and St Roch in Caseville, during visits to the parents.

Tim is survived by his brother Mark (Peggy) of Fraser, Michigan; Gregory (Maritess) of San Marcos, CA; niece Roxanne, and nephews Joshua and James. Preceded in death by parents James and Berne Milby; infant brother Gary, and nephew John (son of Mark and Peggy).

A Funeral Mass will be on Friday, June 6, 2025 at 12:00pm at St. Roch Catholic Church in Caseville. The family will be present to receive visitors from 11:00am until 12:00 pm at church. The burial will follow mass at St. Felix Cemetery in Pinnebog.
