Grand Lodge of Idaho Speech:

As I've grown up I've been asked a lot of questions. What college are you going to, what do you want to major in, do you want kids, where do you want to live? One of the most important questions I've been asked happened when I was 11. It was "Do you want to join Rainbow?" All Rainbow Girls are asked this question but for me it wasn't asked by my best friend or by a girl I had just met, it was asked by my Dad, a Master Mason and a past District Deputy of the Grand Lodge of Washington. Obviously I said yes, and here I am today. When my dad asked that question he couldn't of known I would become Grand Worthy Advisor. He saw Rainbow for what it was. A safe place for girls to make friends and learn about community service and leadership. He thought Rainbow was pretty cool, and here's a secret, it still is. So all you Dad's out there I have a question for you. What are you waiting for? Ask your daughter to join, and if you don't have a daughter or she's all grown up, get involved in an assembly. We need advisory board members and Rainbow Dads. There's no question it'll change your life, just like it's changed mine.

Thank you.
