

Sponsorship

- 1: Sponsor's logo with website link on event web page and special mention on Facebook.
- 2: Sponsor's name on event flyers at Smackdown
3. Two (2) "Classic" tickets to the event, transferable to anyone.
4. Sponsor recognition in public announcement during Presentation (1–2 pm).

WHY SPONSOR:

- Advertise your business via the many media efforts to promote this event.
- Estimated 700 –1,000 (max.) people.
- Seize the opportunity to support the massively popular, skyrocketing food trend of plant-sourced proteins combined with an American favorite: burgers!
- Sponsoring this event distinguishes your business as a leader in current food trends, healthy food, the environment, concern for animals. and resource conservation.

- 1: Sponsor's logo with website link on event web page and special mention on Facebook.
- 2: Sponsor's name on event flyers at Smackdown
3. Four (4) "Classic" tickets to the event, transferable to anyone.
4. Sponsor recognition in public announcement during Presentation (1–2 pm)
5. Mention in social media event marketing
6. Logo on event flyers.

PROCEEDS:

- Benefit organizations that help underserved people have access to affordable, healthy food:
 - Thrive Baltimore
 - Food Empowerment Project.
- Support BotaniCuisine's outreach and educational efforts.

- 1: Sponsor's logo with website link on event web page and special mention on Facebook.
- 2: Sponsor's logo on event flyers at Smackdown
3. Six (6) "Classic" tickets to the event, transferable to anyone.
4. Sponsor recognition in public announcement during Presentation (1–2 pm)
5. Mention in social media event marketing
6. Logo on event flyers.
7. Announcements at various public events whenever possible throughout Baltimore and the surrounding communities.
8. Logo on table tents in all dining areas at event.

Organizer: Nancy Poznak, founder of BotaniCuisine: Plant-Sourced Dining Outreach & Education
 VeganBurgerSmackdown@yahoo.com

Executive Consultant: Naijha-Wright Brown, co-owner of Land of Kush

VeganBurgerSmackdown.com