Council members from the group "Cities of DeKalb" met with the Commission to discuss events in their communities and to partner with the County to keep working towards making DeKalb County a great place to live. City of Clarksdale is working on an event this summer that will hopefully bring vendors and patrons to their area. This group meets once a month and would like to continue meeting with the Commission to give them an update on what they are doing. There was discussion on grants available thru MOKAN for street or sidewalk improvement The Commission thanks them all for their hard work. Much needed information was shared between both groups. Those attending were as follows: Ronnie Pearl, Larry Zieber and Amy Justus from The City of Maysville, Natascha & Zechariah Hays from The City of Clarksdale and Stephen Gallus from The City of Weatherby.

Ben Routon from the road & bridge department met with the Commission to discuss work they were doing around the County as well as brush letters. Patrons receiving brush letters are now given 6 months to get their brush cleaned up. Ben also advised that bridge inspections are done for this year.

Patron John Murphy set in on the Commission today and the discussion was held on the history of some of the schools in the area. The Commission always appreciates patrons who visit them during their meetings.

Presiding Commissioner, Kyle Carroll went to Jefferson City where he testified on a jail related bill. He also attended a zoom meeting concerning the AG Committee that he is a member of.

If you have an event you would like to hold at The DeKalb County Fairgrounds please contact County Clerk, Melissa Meek to ensure there are no scheduling conflicts, and that you have the correct insurance in place.

Attending today's meeting was John Murphy, Ronnie Pearl, Larry Zieber, Stephen Gallus, Natascha & Zechariah Hays and Amy Justus.

With no further business before the County Commission, they adjourned until February 18, 2025.
