

ABOUT relationSHAPE™

The Art of Adjustable Communication

Transform Your Relationships with Lasting Results

Easy-to-Learn and Convenient

These easy-to-use communication tools and strategies reduce conflicts resulting from misunderstandings in your work and personal interactions. Our workshops are designed for you: a combination of in-person group sessions and webinars.

Successful and Effective Framework

All programs are based on DISC® self-assessment created by communication experts and used globally for over 40 years. DISC® provides a nonjudgmental language and practical strategies to help people adapt their communication for desired results.

Customized Roadmap Program for Success

The family centered dynamic is different from the classroom dynamic which is different from the workplace dynamic. Each program is tailored to each setting and based on the AA Roadmap program to communication success:

- Awareness of the 4 communication styles
- Acceptance and understanding of differences and
- Actions that bring positive changes

Experienced Leaders and Teachers

The programs are taught by Linda Williams, MA, an experienced DISC® facilitator. Linda has 30+ years working in the education field where she was the Supervisor of Communication and Supervisor of Curriculum and Instruction and holds an MA in Education.

OUR PHILOSOPHY AND VALUES

We believe communication is at the foundation of all of our success.

What we say, how we say it, and how it is understood, are at the core.

We are all partners in communication.

We all have the power to adjust our communication in daily situations.

We focus on what the person is saying and listen with a curious ear -- not react or judge.