One could say real estate is in Kim Wolfe's DNA.

An expert in both commercial and residential real estate for over 16 years, Kim is a native New Yorker and understands the ever-evolving trends of Manhattan real estate and the never-ending need for stellar customer service.

Coming from a family of real estate experts, Kim has a deep-seated understanding of how to find the right property for her clients. Coupled with a background in telecommunications and law, Kim provides her clients with invaluable resources in order to make the best financial decisions regarding their real estate needs and choices.

Kim brings a strong entrepreneurial spirit to The Nicole Gary Team at Keller Williams (KW). She is a founding partner of a hugely successful telecommunications firm in New York City. Overseeing every aspect of this multimillion-dollar organization—from client infrastructure design and internet services to marketing and advanced technological solutions—her leadership, project management and client-specific initiatives have helped a worldwide clientele reach their full potential. Kim's role as a direct client liaison for one of the largest Korean import/export trading companies in the Northeast, further solidified her reputation for excellence on a global scale.

Forming alliances and partnerships with some of the world's most influential and successful executives, developers, brokers and entrepreneurs gives her a definitive edge when it comes to bringing her clients exclusive and timely information regarding the how, when and where to buy in a fluctuating market. Whether it's a European villa, a high-rise condo, a pre-war jewel or a large-scale commercial development, Kim understands the ins and outs of diverse real estate transactions.

Her love of the law and legal know-how and education, gleaned from working with senior partners in Manhattan law firms, assures her clients that they always have the most up-to-date information regarding the legal complexities of New York real estate.

Kim's relentless energy and personal ethics are perfectly suited to KW's culture; one embraces continuous learning, adapts to industry trends as they occur and provides clients with the absolute best experience.

Kim's passion is traveling. She has journeyed across the world and made friends in most every corner of the globe. Despite her busy work and travel schedule, she's actively involved in charitable and political organizations and she makes sure that family, friends and fitness are a priority. A long-time arts aficionado, Kim likes to attend all the cultural activities her beloved Manhattan has to offer—theater, ballet, opera and constantly reading about other cultures from all over the world. She lives on the Upper East Side with her two sons and at her home in the Hamptons during the summer.

Kim's Motto: "I never lose. Either I win or I learn."
