

Kathryn Cramer

Kathryn Muriel Cramer, 82, of Eagar, Ariz., died Sunday, Dec. 11, 1994, at the Samaritan Medical Center in Springerville, Ariz.

She was born Dec. 31, 1911 in Richmond, Va.

She lived in Pigeon and was a school teacher for many years. She lived in Arizona for the past 12 years.

Surviving are her husband, Richard; two sons, James of Eagar and David of Sterling Heights; three sisters, Joan Bennett and Virginia Jakeway, both of Michigan, and Alice Fick of Florida; three grandchildren; and four great-grandchildren.

Services will be 2 p.m. Sunday at the Assembly of God in Springerville.

Flowers may be sent to the church for services and memorials may be sent to the local salvation army.

Arrangements are by the Jewkes Mortuary Chapel in Springerville.