Wensel spoke about the NVJPC meeting of May 18, 2016 that he and Dillon attended. Future land use - everyone is done with the update to the county. Next step will be combining five municipalities on one map and have a future land use map as a whole with all five municipalities. There was also discussion at the NVJPC meeting regarding public services, i.e. ambulance, fire, etc. The discussion involves requiring insurance companies to pay emergency services. The local municipality can pass an ordinance to make or require insurance companies to pay the fire company. The other issue mentioned is identifying where fire hydrants and dry fire hydrants are.
