Thank You to the CAC Benefit Round-Up Sponsors & Participants

Eastland, Texas (April 2017)- The Eastland County Children's Advocacy Center would like to extend a heartfelt thank you to the sponsors, volunteers, staff, donors, families, friends, and participants who came out and made our fourth annual Benefit Round-Up such a success. Their hard work, investment, and genuine enthusiasm made the day a great and fun time for all!

The big winners of the day were: Carley Kennedy in Barrel Racing; Weston Barter in Mutton Busting; Kalie Ellison in Steer Daubing, Chad Kanady in Breakaway Roping, and Jessica Gilbert and Ted Williams in Ranch Sorting.

Leon River Cowboy Church won Best Overall in the chuck wagon cook-off after a tiebreaker with Brushy Creek Cowboy Church.

The event was made possible through sponsorships and donations from Eastland County businesses:

- Commodore Sponsors: Blake Fulenwider Dodge, Jeff and Vicki Bradley, Frank Saylor;
- Swashbuckler Sponsors: Basic Energy Services LP, First Financial Bank, Profrac Services, Texas Bank
- Captain Sponsors: Cisco Police Officer's Association, Donald Cate, CPA, Town and Country Real Estate
- First Mate Sponsors: David and Ashley Bailey, J and J Air Conditioning, Inc., Kennedy Financial Services, Inc., Main Street Oil and Lube, Security Abstract and Title Co., Steve Key Farm Bureau Ins.
- Donations and Event Support: Chicken Express, Leon River Cowboy Church, Bryan's Signs, 97.7 KATX Radio, and Stoney Johnson

We would also like to recognize Eastland County Crisis Center volunteers and board members, as well as the members of the Leon River Cowboy Church for their assistance in planning of and working the event; Sheriff's Deputy Ray Russell, Eastland Police Officer Jason Weger, and Bill Moore from Eastland Memorial Hospital for judging the chuck wagon cook-off.

The Eastland County Children's Advocacy Center is a non-profit 503 (c) funded through federal, state, and local grants as well as local donations and fundraising events. All profits from this event go to provide services to abused and neglected children in Eastland County. We appreciate everyone who donated their time and money as well as those who came out and enjoyed the day with us. We hope to see all of you again next year!
