Biography

Josephine Frances Korleski passed away peacefully at Meadow Lane Assisted Living under the care of hospice on January 9, 2021. She was not directly affected by Covid-19, but it certainly indirectly impacted her quality of life, as she has spent the past year longing for her farm and her family. Her soul may now be at peace. Josephine was born on August 21, 1926 in Port Austin, MI to Edward and Frances (Jimkoski) Stockoski. She married Martin Korleski on November 13, 1943. They were blessed with a family of three children: Eddie, Dennis, and Nancy. Josephine and Martin lived in Kinde on a farm, where they raised their 3 children. She was employed by the Catholic Diocese of Saginaw for 40 years. She loved her flowerbeds and her vegetable gardens and was one of the best Polish cooks around. She always had food on the table when someone came to visit, so one never left her house hungry. Her famous pierogi recipe, and the memories of learning how to make them, will be cherished by family for years to come.
