WEEKLY THOUGHTS SECOND SUNDAY OF EASTER APRIL 27th, 2025

Dear friends, welcome to the celebration of the Second Sunday of Easter also known as Divine Mercy Sunday. The Easter Octave has been clouded by the death of Pope Francis who passed on to eternity on Easter Monday and laid to rest on Saturday April 26th 2025 at the Basilica of Mary Major at the Vatican. Let us thank God for the Pontificate of Pope Francis filled with unique spirit of Evangelization, deep faith, love, hope, compassion, mercy, peace, and reconciliation. Let Pope Francis feel Jesus welcoming him; “welcome my faithful servant into the joy of my heavenly father.... and let the party/ celebration begin.”

Thank you all who turned up for the special requiem Masses held for the repose of the Soul of Pope Francis. Let us continue to pray for the repose of his soul. Let us pray for the inspiration of the College of Cardinals now in the process of electing a new Pope.

The Gospel Reading of this Sunday is from John 20: 19-31. It is about the Risen Jesus encountering his disciples who were still in disbelief, confused about the state of Jesus. Jesus had appeared to Mary Magdalene at the tomb. She had confused Jesus for the gardener and asked him to locate the body of Jesus. She recognized Jesus after calling her name.

The two disciples on the way to Emmaus recognized Jesus at the breaking of bread with them. Jesus again appeared to the disciples behind locked doors with a greeting; “Peace be with you.” The risen Jesus is unlimited to space. In the Gospel, we hear Jesus commissioning his Apostles to continue the work of Evangelization God had entrusted to Jesus, sending them to preach the Good news of salvation to all nations as witnesses to the Resurrection.

Jesus gave the Holy Spirit as gift to guide the Church in the ministry of forgiveness and reconciliation. Finally, the doubting Thomas encountered the risen Jesus and Thomas came to believe as he professes; My Lord and my God.” Thomas represents all who would come to the Church with faith other than seeing and touching the Lord. Let our faith in Jesus grow and bear fruit as we encounter Jesus in the Eucharist and Word and the entire Body of Christ – the Church.
Have a great week.
