

Mitchell A. Dorsch

June 14, 2016

Mitchell A. Dorsch, 61, of Pigeon passed away Friday afternoon, June 10, at Scheurer Hospital following an acute heart-lung issue.

He was born July 30, 1954 in Pigeon, to the late Adolph and Florence (Bieri) Dorsch.

After high school, Mitch worked several jobs until suffering a heart attack in his late 30s, retiring in 1993 for health reasons.

Mitch was an avid deer hunter, with many trophies to his credit. Along with hunting, he enjoyed fishing, camping, playing volley ball and being with his family.

Surviving are siblings, Jean (Otis) Skinner, Brenda (David) Apley, Richard (Virginia) Dorsch, Pam Camacho, Betty (Steven) Jurgess, Bradley (Darlene) Dorsch and Larry (Lisa) Dorsch, all of Bad Axe and Timothy Dorsch of Unionville; his former wife, Carolyn; step-daughters, Lucretia (Dale) Hebert of Kinde, Shanda Brown of Oak Beach and Betty Brown of Sanford and many nieces and nephews.

Preceding him in death was his daughter, Audrie and her unborn child, Willow, who were tragically taken in an auto accident one week earlier; two sisters, Sally Jo Dorsch and Caroline and her husband, Michael Yaroach.

Funeral services will be conducted 11 a.m. Wednesday, June 15, at the Community Wesleyan Church, Elkton. Rev. Ean Green, pastor, will officiate with burial by his parents in Caseville Township Cemetery.

Visitation will be from 2 to 8 p.m. Tuesday at the Champagne Funeral Chapel, Elkton and from 10 a.m. Wednesday at the church until the time of the service.

Memorials may be directed to the family and condolences may be shared at www.cfcelkton.com.
