

They thought I was having a stroke. But after being in the hospital for four days, they determined that it was not a stroke. They gave me some pills and sent me home. I still had a lot of dizzy spells, I can not walk when I have one of them. My family doctor sent me to BalanceMD. After some test, found out what the trouble was, “1” treatment and I am cured of dizzy spells. No pill or therapy.

James L Britt