The park's main road leads past the expansive Bryce Amphitheater, a hoodoo-filled depression lying below the Rim Trail hiking path. It has overlooks at Sunrise Point, Sunset Point, Inspiration Point and Bryce Point. Later we visit Zion National Park. Zion is the oldest national park in Utah. It was the state's first federally designated park (1919), and it shows off the oldest geologic layers this side of the Grand Canyon (150 million years old).
