

Program Review Committee –Chair Ivelisse Hernandez

The Program Committee is often comprised of board members who are most familiar with the approaches and operations of the organization's programs. This committee's most common responsibilities are:

- To oversee new program development, and to monitor and assess existing programs
- To initiate and guide program evaluations, and
- To facilitate discussions about program priorities for the agency.