Dear Matre Forestry Newsletter subscribers,

As the year is wrapping up, I want to wish everyone a very Merry Christmas, and a happy New Year. We are very thankful at Matre Forestry for our clients, customers, contractors, vendors, suppliers, timber buyers, mills, Georgia Forestry Commission, fellow forestry consultants, fellow land brokers, our professional organizations such as Realtors Land Institute and Association of Consulting Foresters and Georgia Forestry Associations, friends, family, country, and most of all God - for giving us the opportunity to do what we love for a living.

Following is a year end review in pictures. Just some random 2018 pictures I selected. I am sure I missed some other great ones while scrolling, but I just grabbed some that jumped out. Look at all of them, a few, or none - but either way, enjoy your Christmas and be thankful, for the good times and the bad.

Proverbs 3:5-6 King James Version (KJV): Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths.

The following pics are more or less in chronological order from now, on back to early January 2018.

I am thankful for my family

I am thankful we have state leaders that look out for rural Georgia.

I am thankful for walks in the woods with my kids.

I am thankful for longleaf seedlings and tree planters.

I am thankful for Lee County's 2nd state championship in a row.

I am thankful for my 16 year old (not her car).

I am thankful we are able to salvage some of the Hurricane Michael timber damage.

I am thankful I saw my first triple long single wide trailer this year.

I am thankful for my big lab and small chihuahua.

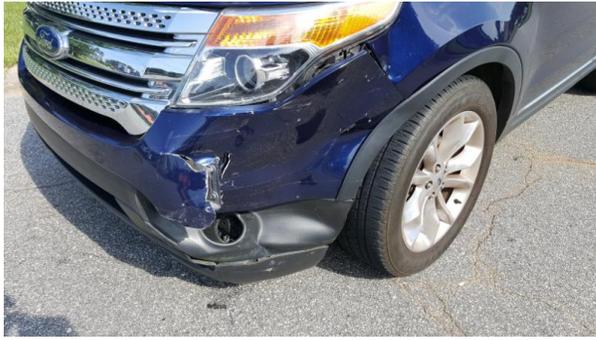

I am thankful for my 15 year old.

I am thankful to have seen my 9 and 7 year olds reactions as they found out they would be flower girls in a wedding.

I am thankful for my wood watch my wife gave for Fathers Day.

I am thankful no one was hurt when my 16 year old had a wreck.

I am thankful for south Georgia murals.

I am thankful for Gator rides with the family.

I am thankful for wildflowers in the woods.

I am thankful so many police that showed up for the funeral of our police officer cousin who died in a car wreck this year.

I am thankful for pretty boats.

I am thankful conferences allow me to take my family to fun places like Nashville TN.

I am thankful for funny signs.

I am thankful that I have kids to pitch tents while I chill.

I am thankful for old trucks.

I am thankful for good bulldozer operators who can make the impassable passable.

I am thankful for school programs and my 7 year olds speaking part.

I am thankful for kids, and the Flint River.

I am thankful me and my wife can still act like kids.

I am thankful for trees wider than my 4wheeler.

I am thankful for pretty woods, dirt roads, and pole barns.

and

I am thankful for you, and I am thankful for Christmas. Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!

We strive to provide an informative newsletter for those interested in timberland and farmland investments, land management, and land and timber market news. If you were forwarded this email, we hope you will subscribe. We keep our subscriber list confidential and will not share or sell our list, and we will not bombard your inbox with frequent emails. We send our quarterly newsletter notice out once a quarter, and occasionally we send out short email blasts to inform our subscribers of available properties, available hunting leases, and share important current event news that affects the land and timber markets. You can unsubscribe at anytime. Please forward to a friend. We welcome your feedback.
