

Trivia: Early OC Language Groups

From Frank Walker in Remembering:

The major Native American language groups in what became the Orange County area were Algonquian (Powhatan confederation), Souian (Manahoac confederation), and Iroquoian (the Five, later Six, Nations).<sup>1</sup>

---

<sup>1</sup> Frank Walker, Remembering: A History of Orange County (Orange, Virginia: Orange County Historical Society, 2004), 44.