No Fee – Avoid Costly ER Visits

A few reasons why the virtual vet space is gaining popularity:

- Many pet owners find themselves in after-hours situations, wondering if their cat or dog needs an expensive ER visit.
- Pet owners, whether new, experienced, or dealing with prior health conditions, seek answers about their animal's well-being.
- People can avoid stressing their pets and exposing them to pathogens at local clinics.

Please be advised that Virtual Vet services do not provide diagnoses or prescriptions for your pet. Our licensed veterinary professionals inform, advise, and guide you on the next best steps to take for the health and well-being of your dogs and cats.
