

Norman Dee Engle
August 16, 1948 - November 29, 2024

Norman Dee Engle, aged 76, passed away peacefully on November 29, 2024, in Glendale, Arizona. He was born on August 15, 1948 in Sundance. Norm was a dedicated husband, father, brother, and friend. He is survived by his devoted wife, Pegi Lynn Engle, his daughter, Lindsay Jane (Engle) Werre, and his brother, Linen (Janis) L. Engle. He was preceded in death by his parents, Jay S. Engle and Martha J. (Stinson) Engle; and siblings, Loids Becton, Garry Engle, Ivan Engle, Dixie Olinger, Cleo Engle, and Carrol Ann Ellis.

Norm spent his early years in Upton, graduating from Upton High School. He pursued higher education at Sheridan College. His career took him to Denver, Colorado, where he dedicated 23 years to Coors Brewing Co., with 20 years in management. During this time, he furthered his education at Regis University and Mountain State Management School. His love for the land and the ranching lifestyle ultimately led him back to Upton, where he worked at Jacob Ranch Mine and pursued part-time ranching, a passion that always remained close to his heart.

As a proud cowboy and rancher, Norm was a member of the Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association, as well as the Senior Pro Rodeo Association. He qualified for the National Finals in 1990 and 1991, securing third place in 1990. Norm had a true passion for team roping and was always willing to help his community with moving cattle, riding fence, and anything else that needed to be done.

Upon retiring, Norm settled in Arizona, where he enjoyed the warmth of the winters. It was there that he met Pegi, and they married on March 11, 2017. Together, they happily embarked on adventures, traveling throughout the United States, Canada, and Mexico, creating many beautiful memories.

Norm's contribution to the cowboy way of life was evident in every aspect of his life. He embodied the values that define a true cowboy - hard work, integrity, and a profound respect for the land. Norm will be lovingly remembered for his love family, friends, and the cowboy way of life. He left behind his cherished cousins, nieces, and nephews, all of whom he respected and loved deeply. He will always be remembered as a man who loved being a cowboy and for his great stories. RIP. "John Wayne".

A celebration of his life will be held at the Buffalo Chip Saloon and Steakhouse in Cave Creek, Arizona on December 12, 2024 at 12:00 p.m. Rest in peace, Norman, our "John Wayne".
