

New Faces, New Places
Bringing People Together

Facilitando Enlaces Europeos
Programas de prácticas y visitas profesionales

Erasmus Plus Cultural Activities

Poble Espanyol
Barcelona

GETTING THERE:

Use your public transportation pass.

Metro/Train Station Pl Espanya

The Poble Espanyol is an architectural museum in Barcelona, just a few meters away from the Magic Fountains of Montjuïc in Pl. Espanya that explodes with color and music at night.. Poble Espanyol is one of the biggest attractions of the city because of a single set featuring about contemporary art, architecture, crafts and in a quiet, safe and peaceful environment. Consisting of 117 full-scale buildings, Poble Espanyol recreates a typical village with streets, houses, parks, theater, school, restaurants and artisan workshops. Two-four hours. Entry fees included. Google Maps: <http://ht.ly/Yeb1Z>

GETTING THERE:

Use your public transportation pass.

Metro/Train Station Sagrada Familia

The Sagrada Família is one of Barcelona's emblematic landmarks taking up an entire city block. Gaudi's masterpiece of 19th Century Modernism architecture has been designated a UNESCO World Heritage Site, and is the most visited tourist destination in the city. Its construction began in 1882 and continues toward the completion deadline, currently scheduled for 2026. One hour tour. Entry fees included. Google Maps: <http://ht.ly/YeaFN>

GETTING THERE:

Use your public transportation pass.

TMB bus 116

Park Güell is a park system composed of gardens and architectonic elements sponsored by Eusebi Güell and design by Antoni Gaudí. It is another highly-visited tourist destination in the city as a showcase of the Modernism movement. UNESCO declared the park a World Heritage Site under “Works of Antoni Gaudí”. One-two hours. Entry fees included. Google Maps: <http://ht.ly/YeaRA>

Plaça
Real

GETTING THERE:

Use your public transportation pass.

Metro Stop Liceu / Pl Catalunya

Enjoy an evening of Flamenco with the dance and music typically Spanish. One hour. Entry fees included. Google Maps: <http://ht.ly/YebdY>

GETTING THERE:

Use your public transportation pass.

Metro Stop Diagonal / Train stop Provença

Can you see the outline of the dragon? Casa Batlló is another emblematic building in the repertoire of Gaudí's masterpieces. The roof is arched like the back of a dragon, with the turret and cross representing the lance of Saint George (patron saint of Catalonia) that has been plunged into its back.

Google Maps: <http://ht.ly/YebdY>

Erasmus Plus Cultural Activities – Outside Barcelona

GETTING THERE:

FCG Trains from Pl Espanya.

Cable car or rack rail train up the mountain

Montserrat is a monastery village located 48 kilometres (30 mi) west of Barcelona, situated on top of the Monserrat (literally meaning “serrated-edged mountain”) mountain at 1235 metres (4000 feet) above sea level. Montserrat is the highest point of the Catalan lowlands, and stands central to the most populated part of Catalonia. From here, visitors can see almost all of Catalonia, and on a clear day the island of Mallorca is visible. Montserrat plays an important role in the cultural and spiritual life of Catalonia. It is Catalonia's most important religious retreat and played an important historical role during the Spanish Civil War. Add €30 for train tickets from Barcelona to Montserrat and the funicular/cable car/rack rail up and down the mountain.

Google Maps: <http://ht.ly/Yesfv>

GETTING THERE:

RENFE Trains from Sants Estacio

Walk to the winery

One of Catalonia's most important economic industries revolves around wine. A visit to the Freixenet Winery provides an insight into making the famous “cava”, or sparkling wine similar to champagne. Freixenet offers public tours of the winery's underground cellars and the bottling plant. The winery is situated opposite the main train station in the Catalan village of Sant Sadurn d'Anoia. Around 95% of Spain's total Cava production is from Catalonia and Sant Sadurn d'Anoia is home to many of Spain's largest production houses. Add €20 for train tickets from Barcelona. Google Maps: <http://ht.ly/Yevdl>