

Walsh, Margaret

Margaret Doris Walsh, 72, of Royal Oak passed away on Monday, April 9, 2001, in William Beaumont Hospital of Royal Oak. She was born on Oct. 21, 1928, in Detroit, the daughter of the late Thomas and Helen (Gould Walton) Mainwaring. She married Lawrence J. Walsh (Chappy) on June 28, 1952, in Detroit. He preceded her in death on March 14, 1997. She was a graduate of Cooley High School and Wayne State University, where she earned a master of library science degree. She was a teacher in the Berkley School District and a librarian at the Anderson School. She was a parishioner of the Shrine of the Little Flower Parish of Royal Oak and a resident of Royal Oak for many years. She enjoyed reading, crosswords and traveling with her husband. She is survived by two daughters, Laurie Potter and her husband, Keith, of Huntington Woods and Cynthia Dillon and her husband, Francis, of Berkley; one son, Thomas Walsh of Royal Oak; five grandchildren; one brother, Rosser Mainwaring, M.D. and his wife, Helen, of Dearborn. She was preceded in death by her daughter, Margaret (Peggy) Walsh in 1967. Arrangements are being made by the Zinger-Smigielski Funeral Home in Ugly. There will be no visitation. Cremation took place at Sunset Valley Crematory of Bay City. A memorial service will be scheduled at the St. Ignatius Cemetery at a later date.
