

CAI Long Island 2019 Annual Meeting

with an educational presentation

Principles for Community Association Success

The most successful business leaders share this common trait: they tend to work on their business, not in their business. This seminar will help you work on your community, not just in it. Good associations preserve the character of their communities, protect property values and meet the established expectations of homeowners, but GREAT associations also cultivate a true sense of community, promote active homeowner involvement and create a culture of informed consensus.

Speakers Eric Clemente (Alure Home Improvements), Melissa B. Schlactus, Esq. (Taylor, Eldridge & Endres, P.C.), and Linda Donato (LIMS, Inc.) will share valuable information from CAI National that will help your community's core values and can, with commitment, inspire effective, enlightened leadership and responsible, engaged citizenship.

Mark your calendar and plan to join us... as always, we will allow plenty of time to answer your questions!
