

November 13-23, 2008

www.cinemastlouis.org

That All May Be One

Karen Kearns, U.S., 2008, 55 min.

Sunday, Nov. 16, 11:30 a.m., Tivoli 1

“That All May Be One” explores the enduring legacy of the sisters of St. Joseph of Carondelet and their place in the South St. Louis neighborhood where they have lived for more than 150 years. Committed to community service and active in social-justice pursuits, the sisters profiled prove fiercely intelligent, passionately engaged and delightfully good-humored. With director Kearns.

Shown with “American Pioneers” (Bruce Marren, U.S., 2008, 35 min.), an entertaining history of Old St. Ferdinand Shrine in Florissant, Mo., chronicling the pioneers, educators, and immigrants who traveled to the remote wilderness. With director Marren.

Ticket Prices

- Individual tickets are $10 each or $8 for Cinema St. Louis members and students with current and valid ID.
- Advance tickets for programs at the Tivoli and Plaza Frontenac are available at those box offices beginning Tuesday, Oct. 21. Box-office hours are 5-10 p.m. Monday-Friday and 2-10 p.m. Saturday-Sunday. No phone sales. For tickets online, visit tickets.landmarktheatres.com.
- Six Before Six: Weekday screenings from Nov. 17-21 before 6 p.m. at Tivoli and Plaza Frontenac are specially priced at $6. No other discounts are valid for these tickets.