

part he saw and the law of god went forth and was kept to of him and after that he was baptised the i be held d the heavens open and the holy ghost came down and at heaven and abode upon him in the form of a dove