2020 W-2c FOR PILOTS RECEIVING LTD

THIS EMAIL IS APPLICABLE ONLY FOR PILOTS RECEIVING LONG TERM DISABILITY (LTD) BENEFITS.

Pilots receiving LTD benefits may be pleased to know that an electronic W-2c for the 2020 tax year is now available for viewing and download on the Deltanet website (<https://deltanet.delta.com>). The W-2c indicates a correction to the initial 2020 W-2 and reflects THIRD PARTY SICK PAY in box 13.

In order to access the information, proceed as follows:

1. Log onto the website using your Delta ID and password.
2. Select Self-Service.
3. You will receive a message with a PING number. Enter that number.
4. Select My Money.
5. Select W-2/1099 Tax Statements (2018 and later).
6. The original W-2 and a W-2c are available for selection, download or printing.
7. Print the W-2c and attach it to the original W-2.

For clarification, the problem arose because the initial W-2 failed to indicate that the income was Third Party Sick Pay. Without that indication, the IRS may have questioned why the income was not subject to Medicare and Social Security taxation.

If any of our DDPSA members find that their W-2c has not been posted on the Deltanet website or that the correction to box 13 has not been made, please let us know.
