MASA LOH Commander Geoffrey Lyster & Lady Theresa

Welcome to Virginia! Virginia is for lovers and has an illustrious history. With so much history and things to do we know you will enjoy your stay. During colonial times, Virginia was very influential in the founding of the new republic as four of the first five presidents were Virginians. You can visit Mt. Vernon in northern Virginia or the nation's capitol across the Potomac River. During the Civil War there were more battles fought in Virginia than any other state. There are many historic battlefield sights. The first major battle of the Civil War occurred at the railroad junction at Manassas.

Lady Theresa and I invite you to Virginia to celebrate the Spring MASA Meeting and Change of Command. We have reduced costs while maintaining the quality you expect. We sincerely hope you will join us, the MASA LOH Officers and their ladies. We have thoroughly enjoyed the new friends that we have acquired over the last few years, during our MASA travels and look forward to serving the MASA LOH into the future.
