

The Art of Auditioning

Dates: July 16th, 17th, 19th

From 1:00—3:30

Ages: Entering 8th through 12th grade

This class is designed to prepare students for acting auditions.

From finding the correct monologues to selling it.

This workshop will guide you in preparing material for the big moment and will provide you with strategies to take control of your performance. Whether auditioning for productions at school, local theatres, college or art schools, this workshop will get you prepared for the process. This workshop will be very hands-on; please be ready to work with a memorized monologue.

Tuition: $100 per student

Multiple Class and Multiple Child Discounts Available
