God's Family Life

July 1, 2019

Thank You, Lord, that I am not alone. That You are with me and You have covered this. Amen.

I came to the Lord in prayer this morning feeling so little for what He is calling us to do. I don't know how to organize a community. I only know how the Lord has led me into intimacy with Him. In those moments, I was crying out to Him. I was quite insecure and intimidated, because so many precious Heartdwellers are responding. I thought, 'Goodness! What am I supposed to do? Is this supposed to be structured? Monastically? Or is it supposed to be a loose-knit community? How do you want this done, Lord?'

'Cause I definitely don't have that monastic structure down, and I'm not inclined in that direction in the least! It's all about intimacy and being close to Him. And obeying Him in everything He asks us to do. And trusting Him. Yes, Scripture's important, the Psalms are important. Prayer is important. Community prayer is important. Worship is important. But I'm not an organizer in that sense, I never have been.

So, I came pretty low, crawling on my belly—asking Him, 'Please, Lord! Have mercy on me! I have no idea what I'm supposed to be doing.'

After I received the Lord, Jesus said, "Look at Me. I am with you all the way on this. I never would have given you this task if I had for one moment thought you could not handle it with My partnership. We are doing this TOGETHER My Love, My Little Clare. Love your brother as you love yourself sums it all up.

"I am not looking for a carbon copy renewal of monastic life. No, this is not My intent. You have waiting on Me to tell you what I want, so now I will tell you.

"Before anything else, I want sincerity of heart. No posturing, no gains politically, that serves unrighteousness. Rather, I want truth and simplicity served. I do not want favoritism served, not for one moment. Rather, I want justice served. This is a mini-microcosm of the Church, the world... This is Family, the Family of God. And what you learn here will be applied to the whole Church. You will learn the ways of justice as you avoid the pitfalls of favoritism. You will learn administration as in My Kingdom. You will not be subject to pressures from the wealthy. Rather, you will cleave to the ways of justice for the rich and poor.

"You will not see the corruption as it is in the world. You will cut it off before its ugly head gets control. You will teach fairness to your children, Clare. They will learn that worldly ways don't fly here. You will not allow gossip or talking behind your back. This must be dealt with swiftly and decisively, even in yourself.

"Do not allow your feelings to dictate your decisions."

Yeah... I get angry. Whoops! Feet shod with the Gospel of Peace, right? Right!

"Rather, stay detached from factions and see to it that they are defused. This is a very tricky business even when you come prepared to do only what is right."

And I thought back to a situation I had encountered in the past, where Jealousy... It seems like Jealousy had come up. And I don't want to falsely accuse anyone, but it seemed that someone thought I was showing favoritism to someone else. And I wondered, you know? Lord? Am I being too harsh in looking at the situation?

And He said, "You are dealing with those who do not understand what they are doing. They are still children. They see for themselves, but do not see the bigger picture, so they are bound to have those feelings. You will teach them how to sacrifice their opinions for the good of the community. But you mustn't have favoritism. You were just and equal with your children, dearest. You can do this. Do not let it be a major concern. I will warn you if you start to do that.

"The goal for all of you is to want nothing for personal advantage, but rather want only what I want for each of you. Community life is complex, and the enemy will try to sow jealousy into whoever will have it."

And that was what I was seeing, you know, when this person thought I was showing favoritism. And I wasn't showing favoritism. I just was working with this other person, because they were my administrative right hand. And so, obviously, I'm gonna spend more time with them, because they have more work to do for me. And it was an affront to someone. Their feelings were hurt. And here the Lord was saying community life was complex and the enemy would sow jealousy into whoever will have it.

"You must deal with it immediately, when it raises its ugly head. Teaching them these things should be your first order of business. There will be some who will not take instruction but cleave to their own feelings. They will weed themselves out, so let them go. You cannot have peace with the immature and needy. They will see everything as an affront to themselves. This is about the ABC's of human nature. You cannot minister to the needy outside the hermitage if you are constantly drained from within.

"Clare, gather the chicks together, and spread your loving wings over them. Then teach them how Satan will try to start trouble. They need to learn this first; otherwise they will never make it through the first month. Teach them how to know themselves as well as Satan knows them.

They should begin the day with the helmet of salvation, the full armor of God and Prayer. They should receive Me daily at the Lord's Supper and draw the strength that they need from the Eucharist, declaring as they receive Me, 'Lord, I receive all the strength that I need for this day, to serve You'. In this way, they will have the strength they need. And of course, you will be there to help and guide.

"But do not allow your time to be dominated by any one person. You are working for Me, and we are working together. And I should dominate your time, more than anyone else. I will be with each and every one of you. I will watch over and warn each and every one of you when you're stepping on dangerous ground, when you're about to gossip. When you have a disordered emotion, or feeling. I will warn you in your hearts, 'Something's not right here. Stop! Come to Me and set this aside.'

"I will heal the woundedness of souls, and I will also bring them great joy in executing My will on the Refuge. I am with each and every one. And the more they give and have given, the more they will receive from Me. The more they empty themselves and lose the things of this world, the more I will pour into them. The greater gifts.

"But most of all, they must have Love, Hope and Faith. And grasp the vision. And work towards the vision, and not be daunted by opposition. But to go through opposition, work through it. Not to give up.

"If they do these things, they will succeed. And their spiritual life will be developed far beyond what they even thought was possible. Because I will be with them, and I reward those who diligently seek and serve Me."

Thank You, Lord. Thank You so much for Your words of promise. And we cleave to those in this time. And I thank You for the souls You're sending. And the lessons we're going to learn! I like learning—especially when it brings peace and joy.

God bless you, Heartdwellers. And thank you, dear ones who are supporting us with your offerings. We're so very, very grateful. I know wonderful things are coming.

You know, I was talking to Nana today. That the cloister, or that the hermitage, is a place where we're going to get very close to the Lord. And we're going to be protected from outside distractions. So, there's gonna be a tremendous amount of creativity. The more the Lord pours into us, the more we'll have to pour out into the world. There's going to be writing and art and music. And it's going to flourish. Because when a soul is alone with God, they can't help but be inspired by Him!

And then protecting their time, so that they don't be distracted. They're not distracted or carried off and don't finish things. That is HUGE! Can you imagine having a place for your time to pray protected? Where your gifts are nurtured and spread abroad? I am so looking forward to all the wonderful gifts that the Lord is going to give to each of you who join us on this journey.

The Lord bless you, Heartdwellers.

Assassination Attempt; Tall Man, Large Eyes

July 3, 2019

Good morning, Heartdwellers. I had a dream last night, that things were heating up in Washington. And there was some kind of an important conference or press conference going on. During this conference, there were three attempts on the President's life - all of them failed.

But then, he was alone in a room with a man who was close to him. Who had very large eyes, and was tall.

Almost as tall as Trump. And this man pulled out a gun and shot him in the face, almost at point-blank range. The President went down, but he was not dead. He got back up and kept running. And it seemed like there were others that were planned to go after him, as well.

Then Ezekiel was up all night, praying the rosary. And the Lord spoke to him this morning and gave him the rhema Courage and Enemies. And this morning he got stabbed in the back, spiritually, with a sword or a dagger. The dagger is out, but he's in serious pain. He suffers for President Trump a great deal.

So, I'm asking you to pray against this really bold assassination attempt. There was a lot of activity around the White House, as though they were dealing with some kind of a crisis.

Please, do all you can today, in abstinence. In fasting and prayer to support our President. And pray against all these attempts.

And I'll have a message for you later on today, dear ones.

Love you all and feel your prayers. Thank you.

Follow Your Heart

July 5, 2019

Thank you, Jesus, for your patience with us. Thank you that You wait for us with an expectant heart, eager to give us the greater gifts.

Precious family, I'm so happy to have something to share with you. I really appreciate your prayers! I've had some days where I just wasn't connecting, and I was being pulled in seven different directions all at once! This direction, however, being with you is my favorite. You are my family and I love you all so much. We all suffer from the same human conditions, and I love to share with you how Jesus pulls me out of the little pits I get myself into.

One thing I know for sure. In the last two years, demonic oppression has multiplied off the charts. Perhaps it has to do with the proximity of Nibiru as it slowly approaches. I know that the accelerator in Europe has also had an impact on our vulnerability, because it has opened dimensions that never should have been opened. The Lord is forever expanding us, challenging us. What worked yesterday may not work tomorrow, as our opposition increases, so do our lessons and challenges increase.

After speaking with many souls that want to come and join in this work, I am seeing now how cloying and restricting families can be. How daunting they can be when a soul wants to deeper with the Lord. I am also seeing the many responsibilities people are committed to within their families.

In the days of the Old Testament, when a man was called out by the Lord, he had to give everything up on the spot and go with the prophet. Even slaughtering the team of oxen, they needed to tend the fields. Wow! That was extreme. And Jesus said to the rich young ruler, "Go, sell all you have, give to the poor, then come follow Me." And again, to the man who said he must go bury his father first, "Whoever is not willing to give up father, mother, sisters, brothers, even children, is not worthy of Me." (That's my paraphrase.)

Family, when God calls, Satan sends out a task force to block your way. All of a sudden, you become the only one who can sustain the family, help the elderly, take care of a house, etc. etc. The enemy calls in obstacles in all directions to bring you to a halt. Those are the things you can work your way through. But what about the family interventions? Relatives you haven't heard from in months suddenly show up on your doorstep to dissuade you from following your heart.

How do you suppose the Mother of Jesus felt, the day He said, "Mother, it is My time. I must go." She had lived with God incarnate for 30 years and now He must leave her behind. Mary was totally on board with Jesus' mission. She knew she was chosen to give her Son up someday to redeem mankind. What sort of love did she live in? She loved the world more than her very own maternal privilege. She wanted Him to succeed, no matter what the cost. She gave up the most precious life of her son for the redemption of the world and knew all along that the day would come when she had to do so.

Should she stand in the doorway and say, “Son! You cannot go! You must stay here and take care of me.” Did she call her relatives together to make an intervention, listing all the reasons He should not depart? Did she argue with Him that He mustn’t perish at the hands of His enemies? Did she criticize and condemn those He was being sent to and try to make them look unredeemable?

My dear ones, when you have a child, that child is on loan. If you think you own them, you need to have a talk with God. That child is only on loan to you, for you to bring them up with Godly values. And then release them to follow their hearts.

I followed my heart—that is why I am blessed to have this ministry and the gifts He has imparted. It didn’t always look like it was going to work out. There were plenty of pitfalls and difficulties. But no matter what, I followed my heart. And by doing that, He led me to the place where He wanted me to be.

In the process of receiving requests from those who want to come to the Mountain and work with us, parents have falsely accused us of being a cult. Relatives have shown up from nowhere warning them that they were making a big mistake. Bosses, too, found fault with what was in their hearts.

In all truth, you cannot expect a person who has chosen the ways of the world as a lifestyle... You know, committed to it. To condone going to a mission and volunteering to build little dwellings in the middle of the wilderness, just for prayer.

What if they are another Jim Jones? What if they are sex traffickers? What if they are Martians?? Oh My!!!

So, my dear ones, if you want to come and help, or go somewhere else to help, are you going to let anyone stop you? Are you going to follow your heart and the leading of the Holy Spirit, or give in to the judgments and desires of your relatives who've chosen the safer path?

I missed my first call because of material things and relatives. But at 40 years old, I finally decided I was going to follow the Lord and totally leave behind my safety zone. I'd had enough of safety zones. And it was the most wonderful thing I ever did. I never regretted anything I left behind, and my relationship with Jesus went through the roof. He was so real to me. I felt like I was in Heaven, though I was on Earth.

It’s up to you, dear ones. You decide what you want to do with your life. Look back, also, on how you have lived so far—then look forward to the day when you are standing before the Lord. Will you be happy or ashamed that you gave up the opportunity to serve Him for a few trinkets, and friends that are still mired in the world?

Bottom Line is that you cannot out-give the Lord. It is impossible to give Him more than He will give you.

Lord, please share Your heart with us.

Jesus began, "I am waiting for you, My blessed ones. I am waiting for you to decide that I mean more to you than anything you now have in the world. I am waiting to see if you will press in on discernment and even discover what is written in your heart.

"I call you with a kiss. It is gentle and tender, because My heart for you is that way. I see your daily struggles in the world. I see your weariness as you build up the wealth of others while working for them. I see your longing to meditate on My Word for hours and to find the deeper meanings, the hidden treasures, for those who seek them. I am waiting for you to recognize that nothing in this world means as much to you as Me.

"When you get to that place, you won't care what you lose.

"I have many things stored up for those who can and will let go of the world and all it has to offer. The greatest of these is fellowship time with Me. The freedom to rest in My presence for hours. The freedom to pray and repent for all those wasted years. And the inspiration I want to impart to you for a new life; work I want to give you as you cooperate with Me in saving souls. In Heaven, you will be rich. On this Earth, I can only guarantee you My Love and fellowship as we work together to bring in the harvest of souls.

"What Mother Clare is doing now is preparing a place, a place apart from the world, dedicated to prayer. Making it possible for you to create and expand your walk with Me. A place to deepen your commitment to Me, and to die to yourself and the world.

"This is not a sudden thing. It is more of a process that I am calling you to. It is from the natural outgrowth of your faithfulness on this Channel, your response to what I have given you so far. The hardest thing for you to do is to let go—let go of your life, let go of your peers and parents' ideas on how you should live your life. In return for letting go, I can only promise you My Love and Faithfulness to care for you. To tell you what lies ahead would spoil the surprise. It is My heart for you and the fulfillment of what you've been given in this life. All that is needed is trust and commitment.

"I am not speaking only of the Refuge. I am speaking to all of you about the next step in your lives. Many of you listening on this Channel feel something unsettled in your spirit, something more to your life that seems around the next bend. That is what I am asking you to prepare for. Prepare for change, and know that change will be for the better.

"Many are called. Few are chosen. And even fewer respond.

"I love you all the same. But I ask for your response so that I can give you ALL that I have for you."

How a Root of Bitterness Can Change Your Destiny and DNA

REPOSTED on July 11, 2019

Original post: June 20, 2016

May the comfort of Jesus be with you all Heartdwellers. I can only surmise from my present trials that you are all suffering in various ways in this hour. And for any I have made to suffer, please forgive me. I love this prayer, "Lord, please do not let me be the cause of another man's sin today." Beautiful prayer!

After worship today, when I came to sit with the Lord, I began with, "Thank you, Lord, for all the faithful and true prayer warriors you have placed around me and their amazing obedience. Forgive me, Lord. I am not anywhere near as faithful in prayer. Please help me to be more faithful to those You request for me to pray for."

The Lord began, "You are learning the power of prayer and that My hand can reach all the way into the darkest hole and pull out the contents. My hand strikes down and My hand lifts up. My hand heals and My hand withdraws - (so) that man, who is mortal, may discover himself more fully. The wilderness that dwells in each must be discovered before the Fountain of Life can be received.

"It is the wilderness experiences that prove a soul and prepare him for Me. I hate to leave souls on their own, but when they turn away from Me, I have no other choice. Nevertheless, I never lose track of them, nor do I give up. Rather, I wait. And wait. And wait. Sooner or later the final moment comes, the decision that will affect their eternity is made."

Lord, I am sick at heart for those who turn away from You. And for other reasons, my heart is grieved.

"Rest in Me, Clare. Rest."

I can't do this on my own. I am not capable of resting. Please, take this sword from my heart and give me Your rest.

He answered, "Much of it is gone, Beloved. Much of it has been removed. But the wound goes deep and it will ache for a while. In the meantime, there is much to do on the Channel. And as things in the world grow more dramatic and urgent, I wish for My Brides to band together in more prayer.

"It is the lone soul who does not avail themselves of My Body that suffers the most.

"Dear Children, if you have been wounded in churches and others have failed you, do not grow bitter. Rather dust yourselves off and keep going. There are many favored souls on the Internet, many. They speak their hearts and I lead them to you. You have all fallen, made mistakes; hurt one another - as well as being victims.

"The point is not to give up. This is Satan's plan. Again, using the analogy of lions on the hunt, they look for the ones who are separated. Be smarter than the adversary. Cling to and forgive your friends when they wound you.

"I did not give up on Peter. It is written that I 'did not entrust Myself to men, for I knew their hearts'. (John 2:24) As close as Peter was to Me, I knew his weakness. I knew he was not ready to die for Me. He loved Me but overestimated his strength. Peter did not know himself. He overrated his devotion, his love, even though I had appointed him chief of the apostles. In his zeal and self-confidence, he believed nothing could turn him away from Me.

"I am asking you, Children: take a long look in the mirror and know yourselves. Ask My Holy Spirit to reveal your true weaknesses. What will this accomplish? Compassion and forgiveness for those who betray you. I want My Body mended, put back together. Satan has spent the last 2,000 years contriving plans that would push the members of My Body apart, further and further.

"If you are dividing My Body, you are working for Satan. You are being used by the demons if you are separating brethren. If you are taking the failings of others as a final door slammed shut, you are creating pockets of bitterness for the demons to create strongholds in YOUR life, not the lives of those who hurt you. They will walk on, but you will stumble because of what you are holding onto. That is why forgiving is a work of charity, a work of mercy. It makes up for judgment, calumny, and lying. What sin has severed, you can restore by your charity. Just as surely as wounds heal, forgiveness cleanses those pockets of corruption and allows tender flesh to grow back.

"When you refuse to forgive, you are only demonstrating your lack of knowledge of self. This calls Me to your side. Now, I must reveal to you your weakness and how you fail others. I do it again and again and again until you finally understand and learn to forgive and go on.

"But there is a form of pride deadly to the soul. When you refuse to see how you, in the past, have failed and wounded others. When you refuse to see how you, in the present, are wounding others. When you elevate yourself above others and pridefully bury your head in the sand, refusing to see the truth about yourself, you are killing your soul and preparing the soil of your heart for a root of bitterness to grow deep and wide.

"Why does that matter, you ask? A root of bitterness is a toxic root. It gives off deadly acids, much like the soil beneath the cedar tree. Nothing can grow beneath a cedar, because what is released from the roots is toxic to other plants. That means the soil in the garden of your soul is being poisoned. All that can flourish in this toxic soil is anger, resentment, retaliation, jealousy and hatred. Then you must work to disguise these evils under a smile and fair words. This will eventually wear you out and open the door for disease in your body.

"Hatred, unforgiveness, retaliation and bitterness create energy waves that poison your body. These feelings can be measured electronically. They actually weaken and change your DNA, allowing cancer cells to proliferate.

"This is the environment the demons plant their seeds in. Discontent opens the door to sin, retaliation, gossip, stealing, plotting evil and cheating. Your lives become a tangled web for unclean things, and soon the fragrant garden you once had is turned into a wretched tangle of darkness, where demons defecate to fertilize roots of bitterness growing all around you - until all your good intention is snuffed out and you are controlled by self-defense, bitterness and fear.

"You have a choice to make, My Children. You can either play into the enemy's hands or resist him, crying out to Me 'Lord, deliver me from evil!'

"I am asking you to choose. Will you let go of the past, forgive and embrace a life of forgiveness? Or will you stubbornly hold onto the failures of others? Understand, what little vestige of bitterness you entertain or bury without resolution will affect your future. You will make choices based on avoiding these past hurts and may very well cut yourself off from life. Many times the very place your destiny lies in - many times... that is the very place where you will be most attacked.

"Satan has ways of knowing when you are destined for something, and he will plan and engineer many a trap to spring on you and cause you to abandon that way, cutting you off from your destiny and forcing you to choose another path, rather than the one I had for you.

"Yes, it is up to you, very much up to you. You cannot advance in My Kingdom without tremendous effort in the area of humility, charity and forgiveness. It is simply impossible. I will not use a bitter vessel to carry My choice wines. The vessel must be clean and sweet, lest the wine I died to procure for you becomes bitter. The rewards are out of this world, but the work of dying to yourself, knowing yourself, admitting your failures and weaknesses, is not for sissies. Either you are brave and relentless in taming your carnal nature or you are weak and cowardly, and run from it. In which case, it takes over and controls you.

"You all have a choice to make. I see to it along the path of life that opportunities for self-will, self-love, and selfish ambition are put before you. I allow you to live that life until you are sick of yourselves and want to become holy, a vessel fit for the King's table. I arrange the lessons and try you over and over again. When I see that love and humility triumph, I advance you to the next level and we begin again. When I see it fail, we go round and round and round the mountain again, or you weary of Me and wander off into the world.

"Please, make your choices wisely. I am forever at your side calling you upward. But the climb is painful! Once you make up your mind to forsake your pride and defensiveness, I lift you up into My arms and carry you all the way to the top. This is My Heart's desire. Will you come with Me? Or abandon Me, like so many others have done. Do you have courage, character and relentless honesty with yourself? Or are you just getting by...

"Please, make your choice wisely. I long to carry you tenderly in My arms. I long to comfort you. Please. Make your choice wisely."

God's Dream for the Refuge

Lord Jesus, I Trust In You. Only You know how we are going to overcome the challenges that You've allowed. Only You can rally those around us who can help in the narrow window of time You have given us. Jesus, I trust in You. Forgive me, please, for allowing anxiety and impatience to tarnish my love for these men. Give me a heart of gold for them. Amen.

Well, my precious family, we are moving forward in spite of the roads. But I have to tell you, it is really bad. In places, the road just looks like a landslide full of small boulders and sharp rocks; the road isn't even recognizable.

I was reminded of what the ads on TV do when they show a truck tackling an off-road slope. I'm grateful to get to the Refuge, but it takes us more than an hour in and out. It is very tedious driving, sometimes just crawling along over rocks. Both driver and passengers are worn out by the time we get home. Before the local people illegally closed the road, it was 20 minutes to the Refuge.

Dear ones, pray for me. I do get tired and frustrated that so much of our time is senselessly taken up driving, because these men are opposing God and His will! And all I can do is offer this inconvenience to Him for their salvation. Surely, the Lord will someday soften their hearts to care for us as their neighbors. We have done nothing to them, and yet they continue to make access to our land extremely rough on our vehicles and the people coming in and out to help.

Perhaps they do not understand that we won't quit? Nineteen years ago, they said we'd only be there 'til half of the winter and then we'd leave. Well, five years later we left only because the Lord called us to the valley and ministry. So, they should know by now we're not quitters.

We've had two new people come to help, and it's been so good to be able to talk about God while we are working. We have a family of five up there, and the two people. One of them is from Nigeria, and he's living here in the States and working. Took time off from his job to come and help us for a week.

Each of us has a Scriptural inspiration or a word of encouragement for one another several times through the day—and truly, it feels like family. The Lord's family.

And the Lord's Supper readings given to us by Holy Spirit were:

Thus says the Lord God: "I, too, will take from the crest of the cedar, from its topmost branches tear off a tender shoot, and plant it on a high and lofty mountain; on the mountain heights of Israel I will plant it. It shall put forth branches and bear fruit and become a majestic cedar. Birds of every kind shall dwell beneath it, every winged thing in the shade of its boughs. And all the trees of the field shall know that I, the Lord, bring low the high tree, lift high the lowly tree, wither up the green tree, and make the withered tree bloom. As I, the Lord, have spoken, so will I do." Ezekiel 17:22-24

And I'll tell you, after a day of work on the mountain, 'wither' is a very good description! I think... at least for me. We do feel like a tender shoot, dear ones. And the Lord has given me this prophecy about you Heartdwellers many, many times. So, the mountain will be a place of great birthing, which reminds me of our Bishop's Shield. At the very base of the Tao cross that spans the Rio Grande gorge, which St. Francis used. The Tao cross, as a symbol of salvation. Is a nest with baby doves and a momma dove in it. And a papa dove nearby.

As we gathered as intercessors to pray concerning the roads leading to the Refuge, the Lord gave Mother Nana an image of a HUGE silver chain encircling and keeping the gate shut from high above in the sky, as though it had been sealed demonically from the second heaven. As she looked on this massive chain hovering above and around the gate, all of a sudden, the chain links broke away powerfully, and the gate was freed. Then she had an impression that "the chains on the gates would be broken, and that we would have access to the roads again before September, before the winter."

But we need that road open now to get our lumber in...by September winter will already start.

She sought the Lord using a Catholic Bible Promises and got "Jesus Christ". And a Scripture Isaiah 11:1-4. Then gave it to me to confirm while praying in tongues. She had a strong urge to stay in prayer and pray the continuous rosaries.

Then Mother Sherry had the same impression, that we weren't praying hard enough concerning these roads, and that the rosary is our weapon of choice now. We believe that we, along with all Heartdwellers, are being called to pray the rosary daily and ask the Blessed Mother to support our cause with her prayers. We were all reminded of how the young couple ran out of wine; because of Mary's intercession, the Lord did His first public miracle out of season. So, we hope for her covering and intercession as well.

Well, Heartdwellers, today's my mother's birthday. My birth mother's birthday and I salute her. Mother Linda, in Heaven today, Since it's her birthday today. And I don't think it is any mistake at all that Ezekiel had a powerful vision. Mothers have a way with God in Heaven, by the way.

Ezekiel began, “I barely started the rosary, and I had like three screens in front of me. The first screen were all these ants, busy busy busy. Worker ants bringing supplies. Building. Just the way ants do. Even leaf cutter ants, bringing in all these little leaves like they have in South America.

Then the next screen started to play. The second screen were bees. And I heard, audibly, 'busy bees.' And there were drones and there were workers, and they were all getting the little chambers ready for the larva—the babies that were going to be born. And bringing in food for the Queen, and that kind of activity. Very busy. They were piled up on top of each other, they were so busy.

The third screen began to play out—angels. Coming and going, from that Mountain. And last night, I very vividly saw angels all over the place, of every shape and size, as you would imagine, up on the property. In the tress, on the ground, in the airways—all around. So, they're in place already and they have been.

Some of this will play out in the natural, and some even in the supernatural, I'm sure. So, I went back to my rosary. Or maybe this is previous to that. Regardless, I kept seeing these rotors blades. And some kind of a rotor - like a helicopter craft, bringing payloads of construction materials and dropping them in a clearing. But I saw it long-term. It wasn't like two or three trips and that was it. It was like we may have our own bush pilot somewhere coming along, for many many seasons. Not only just to help if there's an emergency or this thing or that. But we may find somebody out. Or the Lord may send us somebody out there who is either a pilot or has a helicopter. And would just love to jump in and do something like that. In which case, getting the Refuge done by September wouldn't be so impossible.

I kept seeing one of our helper's face. Right in front of me. And the Lord's been giving him the same thing in prayer. It just so happens, his brother is a very specific type of helicopter trainer in the army. Could it be that help will come from the air to bring materials in?

He might be the one to procure the right kind of craft to carry the right payload, whether it's heavy or if it's people or what. Just fly up there and drop 'em in, pull 'em out. Back and forth. So, I don't know exactly what the Lord's gonna do, but He's bringing up some kind of aircraft.

In short, this vision was about a lot of people working, coordinating, well-coordinated. Each group has a specific task. They were busy. They were getting it done. The thing about bringing in supplies and/or people, coming and going. Well, I'm not gonna presume to interpret every detail, but this stuff's just coming in a flow...and Clare said, “All it would take is just one person with a helicopter to help us. That's all it would take.”

Ezekiel also had a vision of a pastor who went to be with the Lord, which some of you know. Bill Bagby. And he was in Heaven arranging schedules and plans for the hermitages. Boy, we've got a lot of helpers in Heaven!

So, please Heartdwellers, pray Rosaries asking Our Lady to take this cause under her wing. September is very late for trying to build anything, and this is going to take quite a bit of support to accomplish.

Speaking of which, thank you so much for your donations, for keeping us going. And for your prayers and encouragement, they are priceless. We are all coming together in the Lord's heart to make His dream of a mountain—where Believers become Brides of Christ and find nothing in their lives more important than keeping Him company and teaching others around the world how to do the same.

And by the way, just to remind you—He hungers for your company, dear ones, truly He does.

God bless you, dear Heartdwellers. Thank you for being a part of what the Lord is doing here.

Freed from Condemnation - The Secret

July 16, 2019

Thank You, Jesus, for convincing us of Your dedicated and tender, unconditional love for us.

Precious family, you may have noticed that I re-ran a couple of videos that were about condemnation. I have spoken with several Heartdwellers who feel so alienated from the Lord, so guilty, so back-slidden that they just can't connect with Him, no matter how hard they try. For some, it is a suffering they have offered to Jesus that others may be drawn to Him. But I want to address a rampant plague in the Church right now.

The bottom line is that demons of Condemnation and False Guilt have been unleashed on the Body of Christ like clouds of grasshoppers. They land on our shoulders and constantly find ways to twist a guilt knife into our hearts when we really haven't done anything but be faithful to seek the Lord.

Then they try to convince us that He doesn't love us. He has rejected us. He will never speak to us. These are all lies from Hell. The Lord never, ever stops loving us and wanting to speak with us, either through rhemas or in our dreams or with symbols. Or that still small voice in our conscience. He is always active in our relationship with Him, but the problem is we don't always recognize that voice, because of the clamor of the demons who dominate the air waves. And the constant activity and noise of the world.

I have seen for several days how when I wake up... Well, you already know. You feel pretty groggy and shaky in the morning, and if you have pain, that compounds it. The demons take advantage of our vulnerability in the morning. This is a rule—it never fails. And they begin barraging us with lie after lie after lie to bring us down before we're hardly on our feet. They try to cause fear, worry, apathy, depression. And most of all separation from Jesus, who they hate.

But I have found that if you put on the full armor of God immediately when you wake up, you can protect yourself from these debilitating lies. They try with all their might to steal your faith and trust in the Lord. They feed you lies about not being able to live up to the task He's given you. About your weakness, or sickness, making it appear hopeless. The strategy is to turn you inward and convince you that you are too weak or not capable enough to do anything, let alone work for God. Who, by the way, they try to convince you that He's given up on you or found someone better—'so just hang it up, give it up, go back to the world and the status quo'.

Dear ones, these are lies from Hell to convince you that you're good for nothing. So, you have to rise up and fight these off with the word of God and the helmet of salvation. Once it is on you, it protects you from the lies and even causes the Lord's thoughts to circulate and resound through your mind. I have seen an amazing difference since I have been putting the helmet on before I even get to my feet. The minute I recognize a thought, that it's perhaps negative, I immediately ask the Lord, 'Please, Lord! Put the Helmet on me!'

There is a plague of depression, unbelief, self-hatred and all that goes with it circulating in the Body of Christ. And we must rise up and protect ourselves every day.

Lord, have You got something to share?

"My people whom I love with all My heart, you have been listening to lies and slander about My character. You've been told you are a hopeless loser in My eyes, and I want nothing to do with you. You've been told that your sins are so grievous that I will not fellowship with you. You've been told that your worship is in vain, because you are so sinful. You've been told that I don't hear and answer your prayers. You've been told that you are not a Bride and won't be taken in the Rapture.

"When I see them feeding you these lies, I weep. I cry out, "No! No! No! These are all lies! And I try to coax you to put your dwelling music on and let me speak My love into your heart from this music. I remind you to put the full armor on. And when I do, the demons shout out, 'Oh, that's for kids; that stuff doesn't work at all! Don't waste your time.'

"Not true! The Armor works. Those are more lies! As Mother Clare has said, that helmet is your salvation. By covering yourself with that, you save your mind from the poisonous lies that suck the life and inspiration right out of you.

"I gave you these weapons, because I knew you would need them to survive the treacherous tactics of the enemy. Who has no scruples, and loves to hit you below the belt and sucker punch you to the ground, leaving you conquered by fears and insecurities.

"This is why you must cultivate a deep relationship with Me. Worship drives the enemy away. And the songs I choose to play for you build your faith up and your understanding of how precious you are to Me. But none of these will work if you do not avail yourself of dwelling prayer and reading of Scripture, holy books and rhemas.

"There are scores of ways you can hear from Me, every single day. It could be the melodious song of a bird at a critical moment, where I am reminding you that I am truly with you. It could be a rock on the ground, shaped like a heart. It could be an exquisite flower that just bloomed in your yard. It could be a phone call from a friend.

"But you must be listening VERY CAREFULLY."

And I want to mention to you, dear ones, as an aside. It's a very good practice to have your holy books with you. The different books I've suggested that you read. And to get rhemas from each of those books. Because they really line up and show you what the Lord's thinking is about your situation. So, don't just depend on the holy cards that you make with Scriptures on them. Don't just depend on the website. But use every book you have for a rhema. They're powerful sources of wisdom, and they give you different perspectives.

I've been talking to one soul, who is really stuck in one place. And they were not using all the other gifts, all the other books that they had to help them break out of it. So, I want to remind you—this is what I do. I have different books around. I have books in the bathroom, books in my prayer place. And the Lord will somehow touch me, 'Oh, pick that book up.' The color of the cover or something will touch me about it. I'll pick it up and I'll get a rhema and Bang! It's just on point!

So, you need more than rhema cards and the website. You also need other perspectives, other holy books that you can draw from.

"If you are rushing through your day, and you miss the heart I made in your coffee when you put the creamer in, you will not receive that consolation I sent you to remind you, 'I love you.' Yes, I am saying, 'I love you and I'm with you. And I see your pain, and I'm here.' It could be My image in the bark of a tree, or even an iridescent oil stain on the wet pavement. It could be a bumper sticker or one of your animals coming and licking your feet. All of these are God-sent rhemas to express My real-time concern for you in that moment.

"But so many of you miss these precious love letters I scatter throughout your day.

"Please. When you see something precious, it is no coincidence; I sent that to comfort you. Take a photo of it or pick it up and take it home. Cherish these little tokens of My love. I give them to you to get your attention and lift your spirits.

"Do you suppose Satan is more powerful in discouraging you than I am in lifting you up? Don't think that way for one moment! For every ugly word his minions speak over you, I speak a blessing. You heard the criticism, but did you hear the blessing I neutralized it with? Many times I just speak one or two words into your mind that cause you to reflect on a certain Scripture. I want you to pay attention to that and declare that very Scripture over that word curse that just went through your mind.

"My Spirit is constantly pouring out affirmations over you, but rarely do you hear them. Why? Because the critical remarks of the demons cause you to withdraw and cover your head and ears—to the point where you feel ashamed, tuck your tail and just hide so you can't face Me.

"Do you see, children? Do you see that all day long venom is being injected into your mind, unless you have protected it? I want you to be aware that the enemy never sleeps. He is always plotting his moves to bring you down. Always be on the lookout for days when you suddenly become angry. Whether it is justified or not, be aware that he is going to use you to deliver a crushing blow to a soul who is already hanging onto dear life with everything they've got. Don't give voice to that anger but assess the situation to make sure you're not being set up to snuff out a smoldering wick.

"My children, My people, understand that condemnation is in the air you breath, so prolific are the demons in these last days. There has been a significant increase in assignments to condemn. That is why your feet must be shod with the Gospel of Peace. Rather than running to and fro, irritated. Angry. Disappointed. Starting rumors, strife and unrest, you must be ambassadors of My Peace and Love. Consider yourselves the shoulder humanity has to cry on. Consider yourself the one person I have sent into this day and place that can redeem the heartache of someone around you.

"This is why you MUST have dwelling prayer every morning. This is why you must listen to uplifting Scriptural music. This is why you must pray continually and keep your minds free from negativity. The fiery darts never stop, so if your mind is idle, they can more easily find a place to lodge. Continually thinking of Me, praising Me, thanking Me and seeing the good in others is a tremendous defense from the evil insinuations of the enemy. You know for a fact, if your peace is broken, it has been done by the enemy. If your peace is restored, it is My Spirit at work within you.

"These words I have spoken to you today are spirit and life. If you put into practice what I am saying, your days can be joyful in any circumstance, because you know you are loved, wanted and used by Me to bring My light and love into the darkness that surrounds you. Please. They are not idle words. They are the counsels of life, and those who heed them will know My presence in any situation.

"I bless you now to remember and put them into practice. I am with you. Fear nothing—we walk as One and My love for you is constant. When you fall, I bend over and help you up. Do not run from Me, run TO Me. Do not be so ashamed that you fell that you want to run and hide. Know that I love you no matter what, and I will restore you. Waste no time in reaching out to Me in every circumstance. This brings Me great, great joy, because your confidence in Me is great. Your Faith is great. And that brings Me Joy.”

Get Off to a Good Start Every Day

Thank You, Lord, for this lovely reminder that the very FIRST thing we could and should be aware of in the morning—is Your face smiling down on us! Help us remember to immediately move into Your presence and ask that the cobwebs of the enemy be brushed from our eyes and our mind, before they have the chance to turn our attention away from You. Amen.

Clare received this message from the Lord yesterday, Heartdwellers. And it was the last thing I read before I went to sleep last night. I have to say the smile it brought to me lasted all night. I can't think of anything more wonderful to look forward to than waking up in the morning, and before even getting out of bed, searching for His presence and greeting Him—knowing that whether I see or hear Him or not, HE IS THERE. Waiting for me, with eager anticipation, to wake up and begin my day with Him again.

Oh, Heartdwellers! He is just SO in love with each and every one of us! Let's all determine to truly embrace His words here and greet Him each morning with the same Joy He has for us!

Jesus began, "My daughter, My Bride. I long for you to recognize My presence beside you every day. I long to raise you up when you feel bowed down by life's challenges. Yet when you awake, you do not immediately recognize My presence beside you. Dear one, that is when I am the closest to you. The enemy wants you to focus on your coffee and vitamins for help so that he can, in the meantime, insert his evil thoughts into your mind.

"May I say, by the time you finish those things, you have already been infected with negativity. That is why he stresses those physical helps to awaken you. In the meantime, your mind is like a wet sponge, taking in all the poison he has prepared for you. 'I don't feel well. I am so tired. I can't think straight. I'm not up to this! I don't want to fail You, Jesus, but I'm hopeless, I'm depressed...'

"Does that sound familiar? These are words programmed into your consciousness first thing in the morning. That is why, when you put on the Helmet of Salvation, you short circuit a ruinous day that he had planned for you. A day where you just drag around from one thing to the next, feeling numbed by the word curses he has applied to handicap you.

"It is time for all of you, My people, to put an end to this insidious tactic the devils have used on you to keep you from My higher calling in your life. If your attitude is that you can barely make it through the day, you will not grow into the fullness of who I have called you to be. This is why I have asked you to put on the full armor, before you do anything else. These are times where the proliferation of evil is so great, you cannot afford to be slack in protecting yourselves.

“Now I wish to impart to you another secret, so very dear to My heart. You have taken on the world with Me, My Bride. Shall I leave you weak and helpless? No, My Loved Ones. I am at your right hand, holding you up as you grasp to take hold of your footing each day. I do not leave you on your own. Many of you, like Clare, are pushing physical exhaustion every day—and I have told you to come to Me in the Blessed Sacrament. Ask for the strength you need as you receive Me, and I will equip you.

“But even more have I extended to you. Indeed, I live inside of you, but I manifest also on the outside. As you arise in the morning, I put My arm around you and help you to your feet. I stand beside you always, but you do not recognize that I am there. As a result, you do not lean on Me, dear ones.

“Yes, lean on Me. And even more, count on Me to keep you up and moving, to keep your mind clear. To be present as you pray. To even help you with your prayers if you reach out to Me and ask. ‘Jesus, help me pray. Please, help me worship. Help me be faithful to You and what is appropriate for me in these moments.’ In this way, you will fulfill My will and have victory over that cloud of oppression that so often assails you; even in your body—enveloping your mind.

“Delight in My presence in the morning! Speak to Me. Tell Me how much I mean to you and how you cannot live without Me. In this way, we will be blessed together to handle the day. Now, that’s what I call a good start!”

The Lord bless you, dear Heartdwellers.

How to Overcome Satan’s Plan to Divide

July 22, 2019

Thank You, Sweet Jesus, for alerting us to the dangers ahead. If only we will obey, we will be saved from destruction on the reefs of Pride and Presumption.

Dear Family, even though this lesson is for the fledgling community on the Mountain, you can apply it to church, work, and family. And be a hero in keeping the family at peace and together. Blessed indeed are the peacemakers.

So, I asked the Lord today, “What is on Your mind?”

He replied, “Keep running the race My, dear Clare. Keep pressing in. I will not fail you with energy and intelligence to do the right things and make the right decisions. I am SO with you, My Darling Wife, and nothing can stop the work you have set your hand to.”

Of course, in the back of my mind I'm thinking, 'Nothing but sin—that's for sure.' And apparently, He's going to help me with that.

Jesus continued, “I rejoice, because you do not allow difficulties to stand in your way; rather, you conquer them. This is the attitude you must all have. You are more than conquerors in Me, your Lord. I am telling you all that you are infused with power from on High when you are obeying Me and doing whole-heartedly the work I have set your hands to.

“None of you have come to this Refuge by coincidence. Each one of you, I have been calling and preparing for years; there is no coincidence. There are testings that will come to see if you are worthy of the call, My chosen ones. I can grace and prepare you—but then, you must pass the tests that I send you.

“So far, so good.

“I want to tell you that negativity and complaining spell the beginning of the end for you here. It is a very great privilege to be called—but then you must correspond with resolve and staying power. But above all, Charity. In life, there is a tendency to lack respect for one another when you live in such close proximity. But I have given you the grace to understand just how anointed and special each one of you is.

“Respect and looking up to one another is the footing for the beginning of this community. To esteem all others better than yourself must become your knee-jerk reaction to temptations that will be shot into you like poison arrows from the enemy.

“Mother Clare is dear to Me, because I see how she suffers over you and longs for the very best. She is the one I have appointed as your spiritual Mother, so I ask that all of you—young and old, rich and poor, educated or dropout—call her Mother. I want you to know that while she is the appointed leader, she is also keenly interested in what you think and feel. Not only about your everyday life, but also about your spiritual practices and what you have learned in the past and how you apply them.

“Her heart is not to subdue you, but to keep you on track. I, alone, know where certain tracks will lead, and I warn her about them in advance. You may perceive this as her personal opinion, but it is not. Rather, it is a particular warning system I have set up within her conscience to prevent a train wreck.”

Lord, may I say something?

“Yes, Dearest, speak your heart.”

My dear ones, my hopes and dreams for each of you is to see your lives fulfilled in Christ. I long to see His will for you flourishing and being realized by each one as a unique individual. I have no interest in stereotypes or cookie cutter Christians, because I learned long ago: you each are very unique and have a specific path to follow in the Lord. I will make mistakes and come to you for forgiveness, but please do not doubt that I have the Lord's interests at heart for you.

If we disagree on a path for your future, I will tell you that I have a check in my spirit about that path. But I will not try to coerce or force you away from that. Rather, I will respect your relationship with what you believe the Lord is telling you, and I will remain silent. Then I will go to Him and seek His will for you. If you are right, you will hear from me, "You were right, God has chosen this for you." But if my discernment is confirmed that it is not His will, I will say no more. And by my silence you will know that the Lord has not confirmed your path to me.

I am open to correction and suggestion, because I look up to each of you for the beautiful qualities, the treasures God has invested in you. But I also know it takes experience and maturity to bring those to perfection in your lives, and so I will stand by and support you. But my heart is that you are confirmed in discernment and knowing the voice of God.

Jesus continued, "Mother Clare has gone through much rejection and judgment in her life, even more than most, because she tends to be a bit different than the norm. She has come under great scrutiny and knows exactly what it feels like when people do not believe in her vision or chosen path. For this reason, she is extremely supportive of the paths I choose for My vessels that appear different to others, and she will be loyal in what she believes is My will for you.

"Nonetheless, you live together as Family. Hold her in your hearts as your spiritual guardian. And pay special attention to her anointing as Mother and bishop, for in truth she is an overseer. Do not lose sight of that."

And I just had to break in here, and I said, 'As an aside, Lord, it is my heart that everyone knows that I am open to them and not aloof, and distant or cold like some leaders. I truly want to be approached as a Mother not an authority figure. Yuck! Yet at times, I may have to be firm. I never want them to be afraid of me.'

Jesus continued, "Clare, My dearest. I will teach you that balance which you have been trying to attain to for a long, long time. I need you to have that heart, or they will not confide in you.

"And that brings Me to a very important point, dear ones. The moment you start finding fault or judging one another, especially Mother, you have just joined hands with Satan in his attempt to divide the Family. It begins with little disagreements and grows into little resentments—which, in turn, get bitter and become seeds in your heart. You will be quickly overgrown with toxic vines of bitterness if you find fault with one another, but especially your leadership.

"If any of you have an issue that needs resolution, go to her immediately and resolve it with her. Do not brood. Brooding is a sin that is instigated by Satan. Judging and condemning are sins. Talking behind backs is a sin.

"Take a feather pillow and rip it open from a high-rise balcony. Let it fly. Watch how the feathers fly. Now, go downstairs and collect them. That is how gossip works. You can never repair the damage once it has been set loose. You'll never find all of those feathers.

"My Children, you have entered into a place where you will fight the greatest battles of your lives. Satan will find fault with everyone around you. He is the accuser—experienced and talented in making trouble, dividing families, communities and nations. That is his business: divide and conquer.

"He will pelt you with such thoughts as, 'Look at him, he's not working as hard as you are! That's not fair.'

"OK, let's look at that. This suggestion, which may be thoroughly founded on fact, what is your response to it? Seriously, how do you respond to that? Clare, you have fought with this for years. How do you handle it?"

Well, family, I have indeed struggled with this in my own environment. There are those around me who see me as a compulsive, addicted person. I have to admit; I love to work. I love to write, teach, sing, paint, garden, etc. And I do not have much of an appetite for leisure.

I used to be very judgmental about those who do not work hard and apply themselves, at least in MY way of thinking. Until I heard of an old monastic story of two monks in a canoe. The monk in the back worked hard at paddling the canoe, while the one in the front ate raisin cakes and tickled the water with his fingers, playing with the fish.

The answer to that story is that some are called to work hard paddling. And some are called to play and delight themselves in raisin cakes.

The moral is that each one who serves God is called to a different role. Some are Marys and some are Marthas. Mary enjoyed her work for the Lord. And so did Martha, although she complained. The point is, some enjoy their work. Some are more contemplative and more playful, and they have their share of work praying for souls. And sometimes suffering, or even spending hours counseling or visiting them. While at the same time, Martha is enjoying the art of baking the raisin cakes and cleaning the kitchen.

I have come to believe that each of us are geared differently, but we all serve the same God. He knows what is best for us to do and sets up each day to keep us busy about His concerns. For one, it may be being bedridden. For another, serving the bedridden. For yet another, creating art that will lift the hearts of those confined to bed.

Whatever we do, we do it as unto the Lord. If someone is abusing a Team by being selfish, God will see to it and correct them. But so we don't get a seed of bitterness over that, we must realize that we will receive our reward from God, Who knows all and is endlessly pleased when you refuse to judge that one, but soften your heart to pray for them.

If a brother is sinning and being lazy, pray for them that God will give them a desire to work, and perhaps invite them to help you to get them motivated. Or chide them gently, "Brother, are you feeling OK?" Or "Brother, did you sleep well last night?" But do not condemn the so-called lazy one, because his body may be racked with pain that you know nothing of. And he may be offering that pain in a spirit of prayer and supplication, while seemingly doing nothing.

Only God is qualified to judge, dear ones. He alone knows the limitations and issues a soul has when they appear to be idle.

I promise you; Satan will exploit every single one of your buttons and weaknesses. Perhaps two people seem to be spending more time together, and the devil inspires you to be jealous. "He likes him better than he likes me. Look at how friendly they are together." That thought was from a Spirit of Jealousy. And an invitation to get you to degrade yourself. And sow a spirit of Division by taking offense at what seems to be preferential treatment by someone you want to be close to.

Satan is playing your buttons of rejection to cause you to feel hurt and rejected. If you fall for that, there will be a problem with everyone else in very little time. Jealousy spreads like a plague. But if you recognize it for what it is, a fiery dart from the enemy to your heart, and you rebuke it immediately. And of course, repent if you gave it any thought. You will have saved the community from the beginning a potentially serious division.

Do not think for one moment that the secret thoughts of your heart are hidden from others. All of you are very sensitive in hearing the Lord, so you also hear others whether you acknowledge it or not. Be sure you are hearing from God, and not demons who are setting you up to hurt the Family. In Heaven, all thoughts are exposed. Live on Earth as you will in Heaven.

Jesus continued, "This is counsel from My very Spirit, and the depths of My desire that you should live in brotherly love, looking up to one another. Recognizing the virtue you see in one another and making yourself very, very little and gentle. Not threatening with an unspoken laundry list of resentments about another—which are broadcasted loud and clear, whether you think so or not. Be an exemplary soul of unconditional love and forgiveness. Do not give reign to Satan's accusations for even one second. Learn to recognize those darts and share them with one another. You will be very surprised to hear them say, 'You know? I just had that same thought a minute ago!'

"By doing this, My children, you will spoil Satan's plans to blow this community apart before it even gets started. I love you. I bless you. I am with you, speaking love into your hearts and minds continuously. And oh, how joyful I am when I hear you repeating them to one another!"

Fighting Spiritual Wars in the Flesh - Not Good

July 29, 2019

Thank You, Jesus, for Your unfailing patience with Me. Forgive me for trying to act from the flesh. Please help me to live by Your Spirit alone. Amen.

My precious and faithful Family, as you can tell by the lack of messages, we have been very, very busy. And also, I've had some down days with Fibromyalgia. More than normal. More than usual. The monsoons are here, and I think that has something to do with it.

So, I've been coping, and some days I'm down for half a day. And that really takes a portion of the day down.

Anyway, we are getting reports from some of our prayer warriors about Iran preparing for a war, testing mid-range nuclear weapons. So, I know that many of the diverse sufferings we have gotten are related to that Simon's Cross. If you are feeling unusually burdened, that could be the cross you are carrying for the Lord.

One of our prayer warriors has been seeing in the spirit, and while praying in tongues over the Lord's Supper, many Truth swords over Washington DC. The angel of Justice holds a Truth sword, shining the Light of Christ over that place. Dark clouds of demonic networks are being dispersed. Truth is coming out. We probably won't get half of it, but those who need to know—they will get everything they need to deal with the evil in our government.

"Iran is quickly becoming the fastest growing church in the world. I saw, while praying in the spirit a few weeks ago, the Prince of Persia being bound by great chains. St. Michael was seeing to this, with innumerable angels under him." And that's a contribution from one of our prayer warriors.

Here's the latest on the Refuge. We have 9 lovely people up there with 4 more coming very soon. Actually, as of tonight, perhaps 6 more. They pray together, work together and share their readings for the day. And pray for one another. For most of them, it's really, really a different experience, because they're used to being in a place that's hostile to what they believe. And everyone from different parts of the world is enjoying that fact that we're a Family, and we all get along together really well. Because we all believe the same things.

I've tried to be really careful to draw attention to the ways the enemy can get in and cause division. And everyone is being very careful.

Nana and Gabriel have been down here in Taos, and we were led by the Lord to do a food bank for the outlying areas of the mountain. I had done this once before, delivering food to the little widows who live alone and are lonely. It is so sweet to see their eyes light up with joy when we come.

Of course, not everyone is happy to see us... One lady looked at us with great suspicion and fear. Oh, I felt so bad for her! She looked really frightened. I wish I knew why she was so afraid of us? I used to bring food to her father 12 years ago, but she was obviously not wanting anything to do with us. So, we did pray for her, that God would bless her.

Our next door that we knocked on was opened by a very sweet woman with a BIG smile. I didn't do anything to deserve that, but I sure was glad to see it. She had just lost her step-father, and I could see his hospital bed through the window, because they hadn't come to pick it up yet from the rental place. Please pray for Christine and her family, that they can recover from this loss.

I remember how the Lord wept when He experienced the sting of Death through Lazarus. He hates death and has done away with it for those who believe. Something very sweet was awakened in me, a certain kind of caring that I hadn't felt since my food bank days. Seeing the suffering of those who lost loved ones, really made a deep impression.

The Lord also prompted us to pray for those who would have prayer. A wonderful thing happened! An elderly lady, suffered from back pain for years, and was healed when one of our group prayed for her. And ALL the pain left her back. Oh, My Sweet Lord, thank You. I confess to you, my dear ones, I used to really believe for healings. I've even taught on that. When I first became a Christian, as well. And I've allowed myself to lose that confidence in the Lord's merciful hand.

With Ezekiel, it came back—yet just within the family. I have longed for this gift, so I am going to start exercising it. And if the first prayer doesn't work, I will pray again and again. And again and again... I want to see the joy on their faces when they realized how much the Lord loves them, and that Jesus takes away their pain.

Nana got a reading from Mother Theresa's book today, Jesus, The Word to be Spoken

Mother Theresa said, "We have been instrumental in preaching the word of God to the poor, the neglected, the sorrowful and lonely of all nations. Unworthy though we are, God has used us to make Him known and loved by this God-oblivious world. We have the privilege of entering the very homes of the poor and neglected faithful, and thus to pull them and their children out of their beds and bring them together to praise God in the midst of His church, to take part in her sacrifice and to eat the Lord's Supper."

Well, that's what Mother Theresa had to say.

This was a tremendous confirmation to us that we need to have an outreach to our neighbors, touching those who are home-bound and forgotten, as well as those who are not yet believers.

We are praying for the family that has blocked the access to our road that leads to the hermitage. Even though the gate they put up is illegal, the Lord does not want us to take our brother to court. But He wants us to pray for this family. Which, I have recently learned, is notoriously difficult to reason with. When God allows this kind of oppression, many times it is because that family is lost and He has chosen us to pray for them, so that they will come into the Kingdom.

Please pray for me, dear ones. It is a battle for me to bless those who have hurt us so much. But if I am going to be called a Christian, I must put my flesh down and love my enemies as the Lord loved the Romans who crucified Him.

I do want to give you a heads up on spiritual warfare. We are learning that the Satanists are cursing us with swords that have their own particular title or curse to them. For instance, we found one today as one of our prayer warriors was hit with an excruciating headache. In the Spirit, I saw a sword driven through her head from ear to ear. On it was written, "Agony." I prayed for it to be removed, and that Holy Spirit would repair the damage done to both the brain and the spiritual head. These cursed swords are being used prolifically to hinder and disable Christians. They are carved on these swords, and so when the sword hits, the curse goes with it. You can take out the sword, but if you don't dismantle that curse, you're still gonna have a problem.

Pray and ask the Lord to reveal to you if you need to pray Against a curse. Wait on Him and pay attention in the Spirit to what you see. Then ask how to pray and do it. I believe we are receiving now a new grace and training in defensive weapons, because the enemy also has been given new weapons.

But be aware, very aware, of what doors you might have opened to allow that curse to land. Virtue left unguarded soon becomes license—and we fall into sin so easily, especially with our mouths. Repentance, daily, my dear ones is an absolute necessity, along with the armor of God.

And when you repent, please understand. The Lord is lovingly receiving your repentance and blessing you for it. Healing you and giving you strength, so that you won't do that again. He's so loving and tender! He doesn't have His brow down or pointing the finger and beating on you. He's looking at you with those big, beautiful eyes, listening to your soul, and calming it with His love and forgiveness.

Lord, what would You like to say?

Jesus began, "I have listened very carefully to the thoughts of your heart, Clare, and the words of your mouth. And I see the struggle you are having with yourself concerning those who have sided with the enemy and made your life so difficult. I have also guided you very precisely through the songs I chose on your playlist."

And for those of you who don't know, we have a playlist of songs that we put on 'random' and pray the Holy Spirit will choose the songs that communicate what God wants to communicate to us. So, He chooses the songs.”

The first one was Psalm 121: I lift up my eyes to the hills, from where my help comes. My help comes from the LORD, the Maker of Heaven and Earth. Indeed, He who watches over Israel will neither slumber or sleep. The sun will not harm you by day, the moon will not harm you by night. That was Psalm 121, by Eden's Bridge.

Psalm 91: (also another Eden's Bridge song) I will not allow your enemies to overcome you and I will watch over your coming in and going out, now and forever more...

And I want to tell you, the road going into the Refuge is treacherous. Oh my gosh! I don't know what it's going to be like when it's wet and slippery. But there are a few places that are very, very dangerous. So, I'm claiming this: I will watch over your coming in and your going out, now and forever more. We need that from the Lord.

Zacharia 4:6 Not by might, not by power, but by My Spirit says the Lord.

And here I am, sitting here trying to figure out ways to make this happen, so the gates will be taken away. And the Lord is saying, "Not through your intelligence, My Dear. Not through what you think, or what you want to try to do. But rather, by My power and by My Spirit will this be accomplished."

Yes, Lord. I hear You. I'm sorry... Boy, I've been in the flesh.

And Julie True has a beautiful song: “I Need Your Touch Today”. And I was feeling that acutely. And she has another song: “Faith Like a Child”. And that's just another reminder. Faith like a CHILD. A child doesn't question, like us grown-ups do.

And the last song that He played was: “Just As I Am” by Eden’s Bridge. That's a classic Christian hymn. “I come to You, just as I am.” It affirms the Lord's unconditional love, and that He's waiting for us, and receives us in the mess we're in. Yes. I have been in a mess! And I needed to hear that. Just as I am, I receive You. You are received by the Lord. Just as I am, God receives me.

Jesus continued, “Clare, all these songs were meant to bring your thinking into alignment with Mine. I don't like to see you chasing rabbit trails or wasting time. You have wasted a great deal of time thinking the way the world thinks and resisting hard feelings against them. It is true, their family does need prayer, very badly. And you offering up this terrible injustice for their salvation has much more weight and power to it than you can understand at this time.

“My children, do not get entangled in the world's fights. Come to Me and ask how I want to handle an unjust situation. You may find yourself cooperating with Me to save the souls of those who practice injustice. You see, not many will pray for them. Rather, they will turn away and have nothing to do with them. But you must go after the lost, not caring how they harm you. I send you into these situations to pray for them.

“No matter if you don’t see conversion right on the spot; it may happen only on their death beds. What matters to Me is that you loved Me so much you are willing to forgive and pray for them. This, My Children, is a great proof of your love for mankind and for Me, who died for them. I do not ask you to have warm fuzzy feelings, just to forgive and pray the good for them.

“This is when you become co-redeemers with Me and share in My sufferings on this Earth—and so you will share in My resurrected glory, even as it is written.”

Now if we died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with Him. Romans 6:8

“But not just live with Me but be resurrected even as I have been and live with Me in glory, in Heaven. The more you fully you share in My sufferings the greater your glory in Heaven. But I say this knowing full well this is not a Heartdweller’s motive.

“Children, the enemy will do all in his power to turn your hearts dark by impure motives. He knows well: ‘Blessed are the pure for they shall see God’. And if they see God, they will also hear Him and respond in obedience. But the first step to this is a pure heart.

“Your heart is not pure if you are thinking and plotting the downfall of others, while praying to Me. I am not interested in fulfilling that prayer, unless it is part of their salvation. But this is a selfish motive, and that is not pure, done purely for Me. So, you lose ground in hearing from Me and seeing Me. This is Satan’s goal, because you cannot be used well if you cannot hear Me and obey.

“If your heart is not pure, at least you can pray, ‘Lord, make me willing to be made willing.’

“I want you to look upon your foes as children who have lost their way in the dark wood. They sought their own advantage over and over again as a way of life. They modeled that to their children, who followed their example. And pretty soon you have a whole generation—a family of 40 or 50—who were raised this way. They were taught to fight and grope, steal and do the deeds of darkness, to have what they wanted. They are lawless with a conscience that has long ago lost the distinction between right and wrong.

“So, I send My Bride to pray for them. This is My Bride, who I am wed to. And these are My Children. These are Our children that we have had together. And I send My Bride to pray for them, lest they all perish in Hell.

“And they treat My Bride with contempt, thinking no one will see. But I do see. I hear the pleading and tears of those who have been done injustice. And I arise—not with fire in My eyes, but Love. Because these are foolish and lost souls, and I long to bring them back into the fold before it is too late.

“You see, when you take My side, you must think as I think. You must do what I’d do. Then you become righteous and bring glory to My Name. Oh, there is so much you need to learn and conquer in yourselves! And this is the time and place to set out on conquering your fleshly nature and put on the garment of Light and Righteousness. And live not for yourself, but for Me and your brother.

“So, I extend this invitation to you all, My Brides. Be willing to be made willing to put down your flesh and the ways of the world. This is the time and season I am extending that grace to each of you who will take it to Heart.

“I love you so tenderly. Fill up on Me, and you will learn the ways of love more quickly because it will be pouring out of you. And you’ll have much less resistance to deal with from your self-will nature. I love you. I am with you. We will help you conquer yourself and bring glory to My Name.”
