

Mentor Guidelines and Code of Conduct

WELCOME TO A NEW ADVENTURE!

YES, is excited that you would like to be a mentor. We want to make sure that you understand and are comfortable with the expectations for mentoring. Remember, mentoring is about making a connection and inspiring. Please read the following guidelines carefully.

MENTORS ARE: Positive role models, friends, sympathizers, advisors, self-esteem builders, sounding boards, and advocates.

- In the first few weeks of mentoring, your mentee may appear to be hesitant, unresponsive, and/or unappreciative. Your mentee's attitude is likely to gradually become more positive as he/she realizes that you sincerely care. Be patient and remember that consistency is key.
- Friendship requires trust. Your mentee will be interested in getting to know how "real" you are – getting to know each other may take some time. Stay in contact by phone, email, social networking, or text messages. Plan activities that will give you a chance to talk to each other.
- Try to have fun together and build a genuine friendship. Mentors who are friends are more influential than mentors who focus on a problem-solving agenda.
- You are not required to be a teacher, parent, disciplinarian, therapist, Santa Claus or babysitter. Our experience has demonstrated that it is counterproductive to assume roles other than a dependable, consistent friend. Treat your mentee like a friend by keeping an open mind, responding without judgment, and honoring their values.
- Mentoring should empower youth to make positive decisions. Identify his/her interests and take them seriously. Be alert for opportunities and teaching moments. Explore positive and negative consequences by talking together. Remember to ask if your mentee wants your help with their concerns – often he/she may just need someone to talk to, instead of someone to rescue them.
- Do not get discouraged if your mentee makes mistakes or does not seem to be "invested". Youth must make their own choices. Mentors have a great deal of impact; it is not always immediately evident. Look for signs of success, such as: youth initiates contact, shows appreciation, is willing to talk about sensitive issues, or requests your advice/assistance.
- As a friend, you can share and advise, but know your limitations. Serious and life-threatening issues like suicide, substance abuse, mental or physical abuse, domestic violence, and/or criminal activity are best handled by professionals. If these issues arise contact JoAnn Wallace or Joe Williams immediately.
- Discussions between you and your mentee are considered confidential. If you feel that you need to inform someone else about a concern/conversation, please ask your mentee if you may share the information. Be careful with sensitive, personal issues. A youth's personal or family life may be difficult to discuss, particularly early in your relationship as you establish trust. Discuss personal boundaries with your Friend.
- If you have any concerns, please contact your advisor. You are part of a community of support; there are people and resources available to help you succeed as a mentor.

Contact JoAnn Wallace for more information or assistance with concerns (904) 422-0261 or email @ info@youthempsummit.com

Make a difference in the life of a Youth– and have fun, too!

We are pleased to announce that a new Project YES is launching;
“Moving our Youth Forward - By Creating Future Leaders” (“It takes a village to raise a child”)

Goals of Project:

Exploring/Increasing Needs of Future Education
Hands on Experience
Mutual Teenager

Mentoring programs give each of us a chance to contribute to the youth in our communities. Many of you may already participate in mentoring activities, while others, are ready to take this next step through the Youth Empowerment Summit-YES program. I hope you will join us.

What does a mentor do?

A mentor provides support to a youth who may be younger or less experienced and who can benefit from the guidance, friendship, and life experience of the mentor. Mentoring allows individuals involved to share experiences and learn from them while building a supportive relationship over time.

In the “Moving our Youth Forward - By Creating Future Leaders” Mentoring Program, our focus will be on providing youth in our communities whose lives can be enriched through the guidance caring, more experienced adult in the community or college student, the opportunity to explore first hand careers or education they have expressed an interest in.

How does mentoring help?

In addition to making youth more confident in their schoolwork and more trusting of their parents or guardians, statistics show that students who are mentored are:

- 52% less likely to skip school
- 46% less likely to begin using illegal drugs
- 37% less likely to skip a class
- 27% less likely to begin using alcohol
- 33% less likely to bully someone

Who can participate?

This opportunity is available to students, age 16-18 that want be positive leaders for youth, college students and community adults who would like to share their passion for the work they do and/or college they attend.

How do I participate?

The first step is to fill out a brief mentor application. Applications are available from JoAnn Wallace or Joe Williams or can be downloaded from The Youth Empowerment Summit-YES website. Each application will include a background check, which is followed by an orientation/training session.

We are looking forward to beginning our relationship with you as we are confident that this will be a very rewarding experience for both the you and your mentee. It requires commitment and consistency to be successful. I hope you will join YES in accepting the challenge to make a difference.

Thank You!

Mentor Release Statement

I, the undersigned, hereby state that if accepted as a mentor, I agree to abide by the rules and regulations of the Youth Empowerment Summit-YES Mentoring Program, (YES Mentoring Program) which I acknowledge have been communicated to me, which I understand, and which may be revised without notice to me from time to time. I also agree to abide by all applicable laws. I acknowledge and agree that the Program requires me to spend a minimum of one hour/month at an assigned location or as assigned or agreed to. Further, I agree to attend all required orientation/training sessions, and regular meeting updates. I am willing to commit to 6 weeks in the program and/or as arranged prior to accepting mentor position with YES, and then may be asked to renew for another year, at my option. During all times in which I am participating in the YES Mentoring Program, I understand that I will be required to keep in regular contact with my mentee and communicate with staff frequently.

I understand that my participation in the YES Mentoring Program is completely voluntary, and such participation is administered and overseen by Youth Empowerment Summit-YES.

Due to the time commitment involved with my participation in the YES Mentoring Program, I understand that my advisor at Youth Empowerment Summit-YES must approve my candidacy for participation in the YES Mentoring Program before I submit my application for consideration.

I hereby certify that I have not been convicted, within the past ten years, of any felony or misdemeanor classified as an offense against a person, youth or family, of public indecency, or a violation involving a state or federally controlled substance. I am not under current indictment.

Further, I hereby fully release, discharge and hold harmless Youth Empowerment Summit-Yes, its Mentoring program, participating organizations (including without limitation) The Youth Empowerment Summit-YES organization, Board members and all of the foregoing's staff, employees, officers, directors, volunteers and coordinators from any and all liability, claims, causes of action, costs and expenses, arising from, relating to or which may be, or may at any time hereafter become, attributable to my/your participation in the YES-Youth Empowerment Summit Mentoring Program.

Mentor Personal/Employment History and Release Statement

I understand that YES-Youth Empowerment Summit, Inc. staff and/or its officers, directors and Board of Directors reserves the right to terminate any mentor from the Mentor Program at any time for any reason. The Mentor Program takes place solely within the scheduled sessions, exclusively as outlined and assigned by Youth Empowerment Summit-YES, and I agree to limit my actions to the activities permitted within the confines of the Mentor program's policies. I understand that any relationships or contact established between mentor/mentee and family members beyond the organized and supervised activities of the Youth Empowerment Summit-YES Program are neither encouraged nor condoned.

I give permission for program staff to conduct a criminal background check and verify any and all information provided by me on this Mentor Program application, as part of the screening for entrance into the YES Mentor Program, including without limitation verification of personal and employment references as well as a criminal check with the local and Federal authorities.

Youth Empowerment Summit-YES organization, staff and/or its officers, directors and Board of Directors has final right of acceptance of applicant into the program at their sole discretion.

I have read the above Mentor Release Statement and agree to the contents. I certify that all statements in this application are true and accurate.

Mentor Job Description

Purpose: To provide Education-oriented or career-oriented support to a student.

Commitment: The mentor will be matched one-to-one with a student. He/she will meet with the student as previously arranged and set with Youth Empowerment Summit-YES and for at least a six-week period. He or she will attend an orientation/training session and check in regularly with YES, JoAnn Wallace @ 904-422-0261 or jwtsc@gmail.com

Responsibilities:

1. Be a Friend. The mentor will listen to the student, understand the obstacles the youth perceives in their community, school, family, with their peers or life, and help him/her identify workable solutions.
2. Be a Role Model. The mentor will be a role model for the student, demonstrating values of understanding, success, empowerment, vision, goals, punctuality, dependability, and reliability.
3. Accept the Student. The student may be of a different race, religion, culture or economic circumstance than the mentor. A mentor is expected to respect the student for “who they are” and to better understand and appreciate the student’s background.
4. Assist with Academic Assignments. The mentor may check homework, assist with test preparation, make suggestions about special projects, and informally “tutor” the student.
5. Encourage the Student to Stay in School. The mentor will help the student appreciate the importance of education, both personally and professionally.
6. Set Goals. The mentor may work with the student to develop long-range goals for his/her academic and personal life. The success of this relationship will depend on the mentor helping the student reduce these goals to short-term, SMART goals, manageable, weekly activities.
