

WILLIAM A. HUISKENS

1921 - 1995

William A. Huiskens, 74, well-known Bay City plastering contractor, died Friday, Oct. 6, in Bay Medical Center.

A native of Bay City, born there May 29, 1921, Mr. Huiskens was married to Lily Volz of Sebawaing in Immanuel Lutheran Church, Sebawaing, in 1947.

He served in the European Theater during World War II and participated in the Armored Division invasion of Normandy. He was a member of Immanuel Lutheran Church of Bay City, and had served on the board of elders and trustees.

Since retiring as a plastering contractor, he had been a custodian at 2nd National Bank and Immanuel Church and School, Bay City.

Surviving, besides his wife Lily are two sons and their families, Dave and Carol Huiskens and their children, Eric and Kendra, of Auburn Hills, Tom and Jane Huiskens and their children, Trevor, Beau and Caleb of Grass Valley, CA, one sister, his brothers and sisters-in-law, Florence and Ed Bergman of Pigeon, Ruth and Howard Volz, formerly of Sebawaing and now of Winter Haven, FL, Hannah and Roy Williams of Hayward, CA, and Irene and Dave Gehring of Seattle, WA, and several nieces and nephews.

The funeral service was held Monday afternoon, Oct. 9 in Immanuel Church, Bay City, with Rev. Leslie Tyvela officiating. Burial was in Floral Gardens Cemetery. Penzion & Steele Funeral Home were in charge of arrangements.