Jimmy & The CRB Return to Irvine

OCPHC Raises $1,556.00 for Wounded Warriors!

It had been more than five years since Jimmy Buffett and the Coral Reefer Band played on the stage where the parking lot party's started, Irvine Meadows. On Saturday, October 24th the Volcanos, Land Sharks and Tiki Bars rolled in around 3pm and it was like the party had never left. Our club was the PHIP host for the event and everyone stepped up to make this an event to remember. Vikki Swanson and Debi Stephens led the charge for the club, organizing an RV home base complete with a drop down stage in the back. That was the perfect platform for our old friend Jerry Gontang, who played from the time the parking lot opened until just before show time. The OCPHC area was jam packed with Parrot Heads young and old looking for a good time. Our PHIP friends joined us from as far away as South Carolina. Jimmy Groovy even stopped by to spend some time with the club and sing with Jerry. Jimmy Groovy donated an autograph guitar to be raffled at the November Phlocking. Proceeds will benefit Alzheimer's Research. Speaking of charities, our club raised $1,556.00 for The Wounded Warrior Project by taking donations for "I survived the parking lot party" lanyards, club wristbands and Cheeseburgers in Paradise prepared by our founder A.J. It was great to see Jimmy in the OC once again. He sounded better than ever as he delivered his 25 song set with ease. The last song was Tin Cup Chalice and at the end of his show, Jimmy looked out to the crowd and said, "I'll see you all next year!" The OCPHC will be ready once again, to Party With A Purpose!

Club Feature—Tom & Lana Butler

Tom & Lana Butler have played for the OCPHC before and will be playing at our December Phlocking in Newport Beach. In 1995 they formed a Vocal Harmony Classic Rock Band called Heartland.

Tom has been a performing musician most of his life and recorded an album with Epic Records early in his career called Blackstone. The drummer in that band, Max Weinberg, went on to play with Bruce Springsteen in the E Street Band and for Conan O'Brien on his late night show. Tom plays acoustic 6 and 12 string guitars, electric guitar, bass guitar & harmonica.

Lana has been singing since she was four years old and sang in A Capella Choir in high school. Lana has been playing bass for 18 years and holds up the bottom end of the band with a lot of rhythm and soul. Oh, and they know some Jimmy Buffett too!

Tom & Lana Butler will be playing at our December Holiday Party in Newport Beach
