Notes from the scribe:

Minutes & News from the February Shoot

For those skinnners that missed the February shoot it was your loss for the weather was sunny, comfortably warm and almost no wind. Bloody Muzzle hosted the shoot with the help of Hawk Dancer. The targets consisted of a couple of Lakota Dog Targets, a Raccoon target and a 75yd large wolf target. Shooters had the opportunity to increase their score by rolling the dice, rolling a one they could shoot Pasqanel and earn 5 points or roll a two and shoot a longer gong to double their points on the 75 yd target. Only Two Eagles added 5 points to his score. The tie breaker target was the Postal Target which was added into the score and could be mailed into the CSMLA Postal Match. We had some good scores on the Postal Target: Deacon with a 43 and Two Eagles with a 33.

Skinnners bring your prize donation for the squirrel shoot as soon as you can.

and the Scribe carries on:

We had a few hardy Skinners make it up the hill along with 6 guests. They were all greeted and introduced to the Skinners present on the hill. The guests were Jerry and his wife who both shot the .40 cal. that Bloody Muzzle had brought up the hill and both had a very good time. Jerry noticed a problem coming on as the day continued when he finally admitted that the sport was very addicting. His wife probably was hooked on the shooting long before Jerry. Grizz (not Grumpy Grizz) shot his own rifle and did well despite not shooting it for quite some time, his wife was an observer.

Last of the scribes ramblings:

Dan Spoon and his son D.J. (Dan Junior) has a good time on the hill. D. J. did most of the shooting with the guidance of his dad. Both dad and son seemed to have a good time. We welcome and would like to see our guests back for another shoot and more fun on the hill.
