OCTOBER ACTIVITIES FOR ALL AGES

During the month of October we will be celebrating Teen Read Week. From October 9th through 15th stop into the library for a scavenger hunt! There also will be a drawing for those who complete the hunt. But don't forget, shhhh; this is a library, break any rules and receive a penalty on your time!

Teen Read Week is geared towards 6th through 12th grade students. Instead of going to your usual area of the JA and YA sections, come explore the whole library using the clues we provide for you!

This month we will have a story book walk through downtown Pigeon. The walk will start at the library and head north, then across the street and back to the library. Read a story as you enjoy the beautiful Fall weather with friends and family.

To continue the Fall theme, stop in with your children to make a Pumpkin craft that can be found in the Children's Room here at Pigeon District Library.

Other activities that are scheduled to take place is a Free Adult Movie scheduled for October 4th and a Free Family Movie scheduled for October 13th.

Stop by and grab a coloring sheet or an activity sheet to take home or do at the library. Don't forget, we are always getting new arrivals for books and movies so stop in and see what is new!

UPCOMING MOVIE RELEASE

Alice Through the Looking Glass

After slipping through a mirror, Alice (Mia Wasikowska) finds herself back in Underland with the White Queen (Anne Hathaway), the Cheshire Cat, the White Rabbit, Tweedledee and Tweedledum. Her friends tell her that the Mad Hatter (Johnny Depp) is in a funk over the loss of his family. Hoping to save his loved ones, Alice steals the Chronosphere from Time (Sacha Baron Cohen) to travel into the past. While there, she encounters the younger Hatter and the evil Red Queen (Helena Bonham Carter).

Did you know...

This film marks Tim Burton and Johnny Depp's ninth collaboration together. This is the final voice-over of Alan Rickman, who passed away four months before the release. 2016 marked the 145th anniversary of the Children's book, Alice Through the Looking Glass.

UPCOMING MYSTERY FICTION

"Life is what happens when you're busy making plans."

The Mistletoe Murder

by P.D. James

Four previously uncollected stories from one of the great mystery writers of our time—swift, cunning murder mysteries (two of which feature the young Adam Dalgliesh) that together, to borrow the author's own word, add up to a delightful "entertainment." The newly appointed Sgt. Dalgliesh is drawn into a case that is "pure Agatha Christie." . . . A "pedantic, respectable, censorious" clerk's secret taste for pornography is only the first reason he finds for not coming forward as a witness to a murder . . . A best-selling crime novelist describes the crime she herself was involved in fifty years earlier . . . Dalgliesh's godfather implores him to reinvestigate a notorious murder that might ease the godfather's mind about an inheritance, but which will reveal a truth that even the supremely upstanding Adam Dalgliesh will keep to himself. Each of these stories is as playful as it is ingeniously plotted, the author's sly humor as evident as her hallmark narrative elegance and shrewd understanding of some of the most complex—not to say the most damning—aspects of human nature. A treat for P. D. James's legions of fans and anyone who enjoys the pleasures of a masterfully wrought whodunit. From the Hardcover edition.

NON-FICTION ADDITIONS

Truevine

by Beth Macy

The true story of two African-American brothers who were kidnapped and displayed as circus freaks, and whose mother endured a 28-year struggle to get them back. The year was 1899 and the place a sweltering tobacco farm in the Jim Crow South town of Truevine, Virginia. George and Willie Muse were two little boys born to a sharecropper family.

One day a white man offered them a piece of candy, setting off events that would take them around the world and change their lives forever. Captured into the circus, the Muse brothers performed for royalty at Buckingham Palace and headlined over a dozen sold-out shows at New York's Madison Square Garden. They were global superstars in a pre-broadcast era. But the very root of their success was in the color of their skin and in the outrageous caricatures they were forced to assume: supposed cannibals, sheep-headed freaks, even "Ambassadors from Mars." Back home, their mother never accepted that they were "gone" and spent 28 years trying to get them back. Through hundreds of interviews and decades of research, Beth Macy expertly explores a central and difficult question: Where were the brothers better off? On the world stage as stars or in poverty at home? TRUEVINE is a compelling narrative rich in historical detail and rife with implications to race relations today.

ADULT FICTION UPCOMING ARRIVAL

The Boy is Back

by Meg Cabot

In this brand new novel in Meg's fan-favorite "Boy" series, a scandal brings celebrity golfer Reed back home to the small town, the crazy family, and first love he once left behind. Reed Stewart thought he'd left all his small-town troubles-including a broken heart-behind when he ditched tiny Bloomville, Indiana, a decade ago to get rich on the pro golf circuit. Then one tiny post on the Internet causes all of those troubles to return with a vengeance. Becky Flowers loves her small-town life, her small-town business, and especially the small-town wedding she's planning. She hasn't thought about her no good high school ex, Reed Stewart, in years. Until suddenly-thanks to a news story that goes viral on every gossip site on the Internet-Reed comes bursting back into her life like an Indiana summer twister. Now everything Becky and Reed thought they knew about themselves (and one another) has been turned upside down, and they-and possibly the entire town of Bloomville will never be the same, all because: The Boy is Back.

*This is part of Cabot's series, The Boy Series. Other titles include:

The Boy Next Door
 Boy Meets Girl
 Every Boy's Got One
