Method of Delivery: Non-Instructor Led

Course Description:

This Non-Language Specific Three (3) credit hour, Non-Instructor led course, will familiarize today's Interpreter with common terms and meanings associated with internet crime Investigation and terminology, which is also known as "Cybercrime". Learn the meaning of terminology used in conjunction with cybercrime investigations such as "Cookies", "Logic Bomb", "Phishing", "Trojan" and many other terms and phrases specific to cyber criminal investigations, and their associated criminal and civil court proceedings. Through a combination of provided video resources, self-guided terminology exploration, definition/word matching and photo/term matching, the language professional can expect to gain a better understanding of terminology and phrases commonly and not so commonly used in today's courtrooms. Explanation of terms which regularly cause confusion due to the rarity of use and/or double meanings due to occupational slang variants are showcased in this block of instruction!

Instructor:

As a full time law enforcement professional with over 25 years of law enforcement experience, supervision and training, Mr. Jeff Torres brings his many years of comprehensive experience as both an investigator and supervisor in many high-level felony investigations which include, Homicide, Robbery, Narcotics, Sexual Assault, Domestic Violence and Death Investigation to name a few. Mr. Torres' knowledge of criminal justice investigative processes and procedures brings to the language professional many years of industry specific terminology and procedure-based knowledge from both the "field" and justice system perspective. As part of Mr. Torres resume, he was assigned to supervise the daily law enforcement operations at a California Superior Court where he oversaw all aspects of courtroom and court facility security and law enforcement operations. His daily interaction with court proceedings, interpreters, court officers, court administration, court assigned deputies and the general public provided him a unique global perspective into the daily operations of the judicial system and those who work within.
