Biography

Archie Patrick (Pat) McIntosh Archie passed away on November 4, 2024. Born July 16, 1950 in Huron County. Archie was a lifelong resident of Huron and Tuscola Counties. He was a Merchant Marine travelling out of Texas for a time and seeing many different places. He held jobs in several companies as a welder and production associate. Archie's last job was as an owner operator in the trucking industry, hauling freight all over the United States and Canada. This gave him the opportunity to see most of the country and he gained a great perspective on the many things it has to offer. Archie was a huge gun enthusiast and was a self-taught expert on any kind of gun in existence. He enjoyed buying and selling guns for many years. It was his true passion. He learned to make his own leather holsters and also made his own boots and shoes. He was a very smart man and very wise. His skills and interests would have served him well if he had been born a century ago.
