

Alpharetta, Georgia, Dec 12, 2021

The podcast was presented by Arushi Garud at her school (Union Middle School, San Jose, CA).
Listen to the Podcast1 Podcast 2

Alpharetta, Georgia, Nov 13, 2021

GTF young members made 4 research presentations at the 3rd anniversary of PACO Foundation.

Ovarian cancer and VTE was presented by Ankita Mahajan and Rashi Modey- check out on SDR

Alpharetta, Georgia, Oct 2, 2021

Shubhabgi Bongirwar joins the BOD of GTF. For the past few years, Shubhangi has already been helping as GTF volunteer in various projects including IUA website.

Alpharetta, Georgia, Oct 2, 2021

Fulton County Schools mentioning about GTF volunteer Savnee Puranik's award at Johns Creek High School. Savnee was presented with the 2020-2021 National Community Service Ambassador Award by the United Nations Association of the USA (UNA of USA), an organization of like-minded Americans who are dedicated to supporting the United Nations and its global engagement. Savnee's Ambassador Award is the highest tier of the three award levels representing 100 or more volunteer hours in one year. Savnee mentions the Global Thrombosis Forum (GTF), which spreads awareness of thrombosis (blood clotting conditions that cause dangerous blockages). check out the news link

GTF volunteers Divya, Mala and Sonika's article on 'high school students conducting research was published on Indian Periodical

Alpharetta, Georgia, Sept 12 ,2021

GTF volunteers Prasad and Sanket participated in a research event, "How High School students can help prevent VTE" organized by Joseph Caprini, MD, the inventor of the Caprini Score. Check out the link

Alpharetta, Georgia, Sept 18, 2021

Suwanee Fest was held with great pride on September 18-19, 2021. GTF had a prize-winning booth at Suwanee Fest. Several young and adult GTF volunteers joined the event making it a very successful one. The booth helped us to spread awareness of thrombosis in the community. (Check out the report)

Alpharetta, Georgia, Sept 19, 2021

VIBHA DREAM Mile booth: As in the past, the members of GTF joined the very successful VIBHA Run and had a booth. The booth helped us to spread awareness of thrombosis in the community. (Check out the report)

GTF volunteers Rishi and Tajes covered a topic on 'COVID-19 & Vaccines'.

Alpharetta, Georgia, Aug 10,2021

GTF volunteers Rohan and Sonika presented a topic 'Cancer & VTE' check out the episode on SDR

Alpharetta, Georgia, July 25, 2021

GTF volunteer Arav and Ishaan presented the story of Sarena Williams's road to victory: Check out the episode on SDR(Shudh Desi Radio)

ISTH Poster: GTF volunteer Prasad and Sanket's presentation at the ISTH Meeting in July 2021.

The basis of the thrombosis video was created by our 8th grader Ms. Richa Mahajan. check out the video

"How do you become successful despite multiple health challenges?" An interview with Steve Ober, M.D. on June 21, 2021" by GTF volunteers Mala Niverthi, Milind Mukkamala, Ashay Bongirwar, Neha Koganti was published in the Indian Periodical

Alpharetta, Georgia, July 16

The High School Scholars Day (HSS DAY) was celebrated at Loyola University: Check out the Program brochure Video

Alpharetta, Georgia, June 5

GTF volunteer Neha and Ria had a live interview on the topic of Lifestyle after Thrombosis. check out on SDR link

Alpharetta, Georgia, May 25, 2021

GTF volunteer Divya and Malvika covered "Obesity and Thrombosis" - check out the episode on SDR

Alpharetta, Georgia, May 24, 2021

GTF is very proud to announce that we have formed partnerships in Research, Publications, and Education for our young members with the following organizations: Albany College of Pharmacy and Health Sciences and the Pharmaceutical Research Institute (ACPHS/PRI) and Loyola University, Chicago, and with PACO (Promoting Awareness of Clotting Outcomes) Foundation. GTF volunteers presentation summary has been posted on the IUA website

Alpharetta, Georgia, April 10,2021

GTF volunteer Ankita and Krish S. presented on the topic of Vitamin K and Thrombosis. Check out the episode on SDR

GTF volunteers Arav, Richa, Rohit, and Saanvi's article entitled, "Obesity and thrombosis" have now been published in the Indian Periodical.

Alpharetta, Georgia, March, 16, 2021

BOD members of GTF unanimously elected Kirti Shetye as the Treasurer and Board member of GTF.

The BOD of GTF is happy and proud to announce the appointment of the following scientists of International fame as Honorary Members of GTF: Alfonso Tafur, MD, Jawed Fareed, Ph.D., Joseph Caprini, MD, Margaret Callahan, Ph.D., and Samuel Goldhaber, MD. Each one of these has been helping GTF in numerous ways for the past several years, and it was time for GTF to recognize the honorary member's efforts.

Alpharetta, Georgia, March, 16, 2021

GTF is glad to bring you the information series that will be broadcast in partnership with Shuddh Desi Radio(SDR). April SDR Video: Thrombosis in different races by Krishan and Romika. (check out here Link). In this episode, we are going to talk about the research conducted by GTF young members on how different races got affected by thrombosis. GTF is now one of the nonprofit organizations that have been approved as a certifying organization for the Prestigious President's Volunteer Service Award!

Alpharetta, Georgia, Feb, 12, 2021

GTF is glad to bring you the information series that will be broadcast in partnership with Shuddh Desi Radio(SDR). In this episode, we are going to talk about the research conducted by GTF young members on how Compression Stockings are helpful in the treatment of VTE. - checkout SDR link
Thanks to Aniruddha Sathe & SDR team.

Alpharetta, Georgia, Jan, 10, 2021

GTF volunteers Ashay B and Rashi Modey presented 'Smoking and VTE' on SDR - Link

Alpharetta, Georgia, Jan, 9, 2021

The Third annual symposium of GTF was conducted on January 9, 2021, with the topic of Covid-19 and Cardiovascular effects with about 100 attendees.

Several of the young members were given the opportunity of making presentations of their research projects. The highlight of the event was the first Rajan Laddu memorial lecture on the topic of "Addressing Thrombosis risk in patients with vascular malformations including CLOVES syndrome" which was given by Alfonso Tafur, MD.

Alpharetta, Georgia, Jan, 9, 2021

The 8th anniversary of GTF was celebrated virtually with about 140 attendees.

Several of the young members were given the opportunity of making presentations on their research projects.
