

DORLAND

MOUNTAIN ARTS COLONY

The Associate Artists is a group of artists affiliated with Dorland Mountain Arts Colony. These artists meet to discuss, plan and implement activities that support each other and Dorland.

WHAT IS THE ASSOCIATE ARTIST PROGRAM?

The Associate Artists Program is a group of dedicated artists who volunteer to promote Dorland. These artists are an active community that meet four times a year to share their own creative works with each other and the community. Together, with Dorland's staff and Board of Directors, they organize art exhibits, reading and music events, set up the annual 'open house' festival and contribute to special projects at Dorland.

ASSISTANCE, INVOLVEMENT and ADVOCACY

Inclusion in Dorland's group of Associate Artists is a privilege and a responsibility. Associate Artists choose to support Dorland's mission statement as volunteers, as participants in events, and as advocates of Dorland Mountain Arts Colony within the community. Sustained involvement of the Associate Artists group is vital to Dorland.

ANNUAL FEE and ASSOCIATE ARTIST BENEFITS

Associate Artists pay an annual fee of $100 (individual membership) or $150 (family membership) to support Dorland's programs. Benefits for Associate Artists include: visits to Dorland year-round, a $60 two-night stay at Dorland, 25% discounts on workshops at Dorland, a 25% discount on vendor space during the annual "Art Under the Oaks Festival," participation in special art exhibitions, public readings, music events, quarterly meetings, and opportunities for leadership and recognition in Dorland's community.
