Check the work of your constitution review committee to ensure nothing has been overlooked in this revision. The links we've included will bring-up the old (current) and the new (proposed) constitutions. Check them out and then plan to come to the Sept 15 session to learn more about the document and the governing body of your church. Hope to see you there.

Stewardship: Giving of your Time

This Sunday, Sep 15, we've asked Janet Seiz to be our Stewardship guest speaker. Janet is co-chair of the Nurturing Committee and as most of you know is a talented communicator. She plans to speak briefly before each service about giving of your time through volunteering. In anticipation of Janet's talk, your Stewardship Team has made available (See attached PDF to email) a handout listing all of St Paul's volunteer opportunities for you to use should you want to find a place for your volunteering energy at St Paul's.

St. Paul's Readers Book Club

St. Paul's Readers book club meets on Thursday, September 19, at 3 pm in Trinity Hall. Please join us as we discuss The River of Doubt: Theodore Roosevelt's Darkest Journey by Candice Millard, 2005. Here is more about this book: The 26th President, failing re-election, has an adventure that nearly kills him. A series of circumstances brought the adventurous Teddy to Brazil. When the opportunity came to follow the uncharted course of the River of Doubt, he eagerly seized it. Along the way, Roosevelt and his men faced an unbelievable hardship -- losing canoes and supplies to whitewater rapids and enduring starvation, Indian attack, disease, drowning, and a murder.

Please consider joining us whether you have finished the book -- or even started. Our meetings are held on the third Thursday of most months at 3 pm. It is an informal gathering to talk about our book for the month, led by a facilitator. We try to select books from different genres to stretch our horizons and extend our appeal. For questions or more information, please contact Katherine Trexler katherine.m.trexler@gmail.com

UMD Volunteer Update

Moving forward, we're back to the original time frame, 11:30-1:30 pm. We'll help with meal prep before serving lunch just as we did previously, only four volunteers are needed. To accommodate our monthly Habitat for Humanity volunteer shift, I changed the UMD shift to the fourth Saturday of the month starting in September.

Volunteers MUST sign up online to participate. You can Sign up here:

As always, please reach out to me with questions about the logistics of volunteering,

Our Afghan family support team is so grateful for your generosity in providing diapers for the past several months. The 2 families have a good supply for the time being, so we will let you know when that changes.

We could use help with funding school supplies. Six of the children are already back in school at Hope Valley Elementary, which shifted to a year-round schedule this year. We purchased supplies for them but foresee more expenses ahead when the other 6 return to school (Githens Middle and Jordan High) at the end of August. As always, thank you for your generosity in sharing with these families.

If you would like to contribute, you may do so through the pew envelope in offering plate or send a check to the church office, designating "school supplies for Afghan families".
