

Gordon Hamilton is a Past President of the Pikes Peak Chapter of AUSA.

He is a Registered Representative and an Investment Advisor's Representative at Colorado Financial Service Corporation. He is President of GTH Financial in Colorado Springs, Colorado.

Gordon joined the securities industry in 2004, turning his long-time passion for financial planning into his profession. He is licensed in both insurance and securities, holding SEC certificates in Series 6, Series 7 & Series 66.

He was commissioned in the United States Army upon his graduation from Wheaton College, in Illinois. He served 28 years as a professional logistician, retiring in 2004 after a tour of duty in Baghdad, as a Deputy Brigade Commander.

Gordon's passions continue to be taking care of soldiers and their families, working to better the lives of the children in his community and taking care of missionaries around the globe.

Gordon was born abroad in Palestine, and at a very early age in life became a "Missionary kid." He lived the first 12 years of his life in the Kingdom of Jordan as his parents were Missionaries.

Gordon has earned numerous AUSA recognitions and awards from the Chapter, Region 7, and National levels. In October 2020, Gordon was awarded the Association of the United States Army's prestigious National Distinguished Service Award.

He considers himself very fortunate to be married to his wife Sophie, from Nijmegen, the Netherlands. They have two great kids: Greg, who is a realtor working in Monterey, California, and Danielle, who is a Major in the US Army Reserves, stationed in the Netherlands.
