From Camper Evaluations:

If you wrote the camp description what would you write?

This camp will be your home away from home. Camp was just like ... really awesome and really cool and nice and stuff like that. Merom is awesome. Merom is a break from home and you can make new friends. Amazing place. Amazing week. I would write how much I experienced and the connection to God I had. Come to Camp Merom where you meet new friends and become family. You will have a great week with the many campers and activities along with the counselors. Are you looking for fun? If so, Merom is the place to go – not only is it fun, but here you can feel a closer connection to God. It is a life changing experience. A camp where worries float away and people love each other for who they are. A fun, accepting place where everyone is welcomed, and seen in the eyes of God. This is a safe place. A place with no judgement, and a place where strangers become family.
