Loraine Pellegrino has been involved in Arizona politics for many years. Her affiliation with the Arizona Federation of Republican Women (AzFRW) began as a founding member of the Ahwatukee Republican Women's Club in Phoenix. Since the Ahwatukee Republican Women's charter in 2005, Loraine has served on the ARW executive committee in a variety of offices including four years as President.

On the district level, Loraine is both an elected Precinct and State Committeeman. She has served in these positions for the past 14 years and is honored to have been awarded the "Most Valuable Precinct Committeeman" in 2010 and 2015 by the AZGOP.

Highlights of Loraine's political career include being elected to the RNC Conventions in 2012 as a delegate at-large and an alternate at-large in 2016.

Recruiting Republican women to run for office has always been a personal goal which was realized in 2014, 2016 and 2018 when Loraine served as the Campaign Manager for State Representative Jill Norgaard.

In addition to serving a 2nd term as President of the Arizona Federation of Republican Women, Loraine has served 3 terms as 1st Vice President for the AzFRW. She has recently been elected to a 3rd term on the AZGOP Executive Committee as an elected Member-at-Large for CD9.

Born and raised in Connecticut, Loraine has a B.S. Degree in Media Studies from Sacred Heart University. Following graduation, she pursued a career in the travel industry. During this time she met her husband Ed, whose career with Honeywell International afforded them with the opportunity to live abroad in Germany. Phoenix has been their home for the past 23 years. They have been married 35 years and have one son.
