Two Louisiana Schools Certified as Law Signature Schools

Lake Charles Boston Academy of Learning and West Monroe High School have been certified by the LCLCE as Law Signature Schools. These schools have met the LCLCE board approved criteria of a Law Signature School. The Louisiana Bar Foundation partners with the LCLCE by considering certified Law Signature Schools for funding to convert a classroom into a multi-use mock courtroom.

LCLCE President Judge Wendell Manning is seen above at the Lake Charles Boston Academy of Learning announcement regarding the Law Signature School certification. Many local dignitaries were on hand for the event, including Calcasieu Parish Schools Superintendent Wavne Savov and Louisiana Bar Foundation

The Louisiana Center for Law and Civic Education is a non profit 501(c)(3) organization. It is the educational arm of the Louisiana State Bar Association. It is financially assisted, in part, by the Interest on Lawyers Trust Accounts program through the Louisiana Bar Foundation, federal organizations, and by generous private contributions.
