

Pfaff, John G.

John George Pfaff, 87, of Colfax Township, passed away Friday, April 10, 2009 at his home with his family at his side.

He was born Dec. 16, 1921 in Bad Axe to the late Ernest and Edna (Snodden) Pfaff.

John was united in marriage to Joyce Diebel Anderson on Jan. 16, 1961 at Our Savior Lutheran Church in Bad Axe. He was a wonderful husband of 48 years, a great dad, father-in-law and grandfather. He will be greatly missed by his family and many friends.

He was a member of the Bad Axe First United Methodist Church. John farmed all his life, except for a short time after he graduated from high school. He was employed at Chrysler Maritime in Port Huron. He was active in the Bad Axe Breakfast Club, Popple Trailblazers, John Deere 2 Cylinder Club, and he enjoyed camping with the Good Sams RV Traveling Club. John rebuilt a 1970 Chevy pickup and he would only buy a Mercury vehicle.

He is survived by his wife, Joyce; one son, Perry (Charlot) Pfaff of Bad Axe; one daughter, Janet (James) Pietschmann of Kansas City, Mo.; three grandchildren, Perry W. Pfaff II, Amanda M. and Ryan J. Pfaff; two great-grandchildren, Mirisa Ann Pfaff and Melinay Catcenacci; several nieces and nephews and many friends.

He was preceded in death by two sisters, Mary Wills and Ruth Schumm.

Funeral services will be conducted at 1 p.m. Friday, April 17, 2009 at the Bad Axe First United Methodist Church with the Rev. Jean Love, pastor officiating.

Visitation will be from 2 to 9 p.m. Thursday at the MacAlpine Mac Chapel in Bad Axe and from noon until the time of service Friday at the church.

Memorials may be offered to the Bad Axe First United Methodist Church or the American Heart Association.
