Biography

Dustin Allan (Buck) Tice, age 40 of Bad Axe (formerly Kalkaska), passed away on Monday, September 20, 2021 at home surrounded by his family. Dustin was born on December 20, 1980 in Bad Axe, son of Mark Tice and Brenda (Whelihan(Tice) now Mayle. Dustin "Buck" Tice worked as an electrician by trade until 2013 when his brain cancer prevented him from continuing. He enjoyed spending time with his family and friends, whether just hanging out or hunting, especially bear hunting. His passion for hunting started from his youth from his Dad, Mark. Buck shared and taught his love of hunting to his daughter, Hayleigh, They enjoyed many hunting adventures and he loved spending time with her very much. In Buck's life, Hayleigh was always the reason and motivation to push himself further through the many difficult challenges having cancer gave him. In knowing him, he taught us all lessons in courage, strength, perseverance and most of all the love of family and good friends. He was truly, a one of a kind human being who gave us lots of memories and stories to reminisce for a long time to come. A great houndsman, who was as tough as they come. Buck will never be forgotten by many that knew him.
