

V.C.M.E.C. Model Horse REVIEW

Vol. 3 No. 1 ~ Spring 2018

A Word to the Fore: A Vintage Year for VCMEC!

Happy 2018, all! It's shaping up to be a big year for VCMEC!

Vintage Custom Model Equine Congress II is coming up fast, on Sunday, May 6. It's almost a time-machine trip, with the best of yesteryear making more great memories today! The entry deadline is April 15, so don't miss out--details are in the box at lower right!

Sarah Minkiewicz-Breunig is kindly donating some tile awards for the Showcase competition and the overall Supreme Grand Champion and Reserve (thank you so much, Sarah!!), the ribbons and rosettes and trophies for the Breed Challenge are on the way from Hodges (so you KNOW they're good!), and after this issue comes out, I'll be working on recruiting more show staff to help this epic event run smoothly and finish in good time.

We hope to also have a get-together of some kind the night before! Please watch for details on the VCMEC web site, <http://www.vcmec.org>, and in our Facebook group, <https://www.facebook.com/groups/vcmecongress/>.

Meanwhile, the 2016-17 VCMEC Online World Championships show series is in the process of wrapping up, which has been keeping things hopping here!

After the concluding December 2017 leg of the VCMEC Online World Championships series (thanks so much to Kay Myers for her super-speedy judging...and wait 'til you see what her sharp eye spotted along the way; the details are on page 24!), the number-crunching for the overall six-leg, 18-month series devoured much of my January. The time really flew in the excitement of learning which horses the numbers revealed were the World Champion, Reserve World Champion, and Top Ten in each class, and then the World Champion and Reserve World Champion in Breed, Color, and Workmanship in each of the three divisions (1960s/1970s, 1980s, and 1990s), and finally the Overall World Champion and Reserve World Champion of each of the three divisions!

Those final overall results will be featured next issue--gonna be a BIG one! In the meantime, a look at what went into them--as well as a peek at one of the trophies on the way--is on Page 25! The awards for the VCMEC Online World Championships series are also from Hodges, and we'll have them on hand at Vintage Custom Model Equine Congress, weeks BEFORE the overall results for the series are printed in the next issue. I'm looking forward to being able to present the awards in person to the winning horses, and their owners, who are there at Vintage Custom Model Equine Congress.

Last issue we celebrated the VCMEC Online World Championships series' first-ever horse to win the "Triple Crown," the Overall Grand Championships in the same leg's Breed, Color, and Workmanship shows: Lois Bennington's Appaloosa extraordinaire, Brother Love.

This issue we have another Triple Crown winner to applaud, and she's gracing the front cover: Beth Peart's own Penny Arcade! Beth shares more about this special lady on Pages 20-21. Congratulations, Penny and Beth!

The Victory Lap this issue is the last of the 2016-17 series, and has some especially memorable entries. I'm sorry to see it end for now; the Victory Lap has been my favorite part of each issue, getting to learn more about these historic model horses. Hope you've enjoyed it, too! Thanks so much to everyone who contributed your time, memories, and photos.

Have a joyous spring, and I hope to see you at Vintage Custom Model Equine Congress in May!

-Sparky C.

Entry deadline for Vintage Custom Model Equine Congress II is April 15!

Time to get your herd ready for Vintage Custom Model Equine Congress II on May 6! This retro-style event is a gratifying get-together of enthusiasts and vintage custom models, to make hobby history as well as revisit it!

Any plastic model horse customized before the year 2000 is eligible. From the people's-choice Vintage Custom Showcase to the judged show-rings of the Breed Challenge, it's a day full of ways to celebrate these survivors from the 1960s to the 1990s--and there's lots of loot for the winning, too!

This epic event will again be held at American Legion Captain Oscar Brady Post No. 298, in Battle Creek, Michigan, hometown of the VCMEC Hobby House & Museum. Download the show information packet at <http://www.vcmec.org/vcmeclive.html> !

Stay tuned for the latest news and announcements on our website (<http://www.vcmec.org>), as well as in our Vintage Custom Model Equine Congress group on Facebook (<https://www.facebook.com/groups/vcmecongress/> ).

See you in Michigan in May for remakes, reminiscing, and good old-fashioned fun!

Victory Lap!

Shortly before press time, and without revealing who'd won what, owners of each division's Overall Champions and Reserve Champs were invited to share their thoughts about these superb vintage customs. Here's what they said!

PENNY ARCADE

Dapple grey Thoroughbred mare, CM by Beth Peart in 1975

1960s/'70s Overall Champion Breed, Color, and Workmanship

Beth Peart, Penny Arcade's creator and owner, writes, "OMG that is TOO cool!"

"I was reunited with Penny Arcade in 2016, in Rockport NY at the Lilac City Live Show. I wasn't showing then, but I went to accompany Kathy Wells who was showing, and to catch up after many years out of touch. She surprised me with her. Kathy had got her at a swap meet. Lord knows where she had been in the 30+ years it had been since I sold her, I think originally to Kathy who was one of a very few who could talk me out of my models.

"At the time, Penny was 41 years old, the project of mid-teen me. She had survived fairly well, all considered and really was the impetus for me to return to showing last year. She even had her original tail and home-made, original horse-shoes on.

"I made her from a Breyer Man O' War, as most could probably tell, but I fattened the body up a lot, giving her an apple-round rump. My inspiration was a hunter mare out of Lockport NY, if I recall correctly, called Miss December. She was as her name might suggest, quite voluptuous, and I was envious of her, despite having a nice horse, myself--but she was a conformation hunter and mine was working. She was ridden by Debbie Shaffner who I also deeply envied, for the same reasons, haha. I rode the Jr 'A' Hunter circuit in southern Ontario and Western NY at the time.

"She is painted in oils and I used a concoction of PolyFilla and carpenter's glue for the body filler. Apoxie Sculpt wasn't an option then, and Bondo was toxic and awkward to use so I improvised. Sadly most of the customs I did back then have not survived well because of this mixture, but she had relatively little damage, and I was able to repair what there was.

"I showed her around in photo shows through the '70s and also at live shows in the early '80s and did a lot of winning with her. I did live show her a bit recently, after cleaning her up, but hardly anyone cares a thing about vintage horses at mainstream shows, so I re-retired her, though might tack her up and do some photo showing.

"There was one great shot of her with her rider up, also modelled on Debbie Shaffner. [It's featured as our cover photo this issue! -Ed.] Parenthetically, I am certain the doll was the inspiration for Brenda Breyer. I recently found that, too. I had a very long and intense chat with Pete Stone at Marney's Congress about the doll, and in less than a year, by my recollection, Brenda appeared in the catalogue. In fact, I showed with several riders back then, which wasn't at all common like it is now. Kathy Wells is my witness to that convo with Pete. :-)"

STARSHIP PHOENIX

Chestnut American Saddlebred mare, CM by Nancy Strowger in 1979

1960s/'70s Overall Reserve
Champion Breed and Workmanship

Ardith Carlton writes, "So happy for this firey li'l gal! It was a thrill to welcome her and her moosey Adios pal Tadeusz, also by Nancy Strowger, to my stable when Jeannine DeCuir parted with them in 2013.

"The rich blue of her braids is the very color of the Phoenix, a spacecraft in a Japanese anime series Nancy Strowger was fond of, 'Science Ninja Team Gatchaman.' In flight, the Phoenix could shift into the form of a flaming firebird--so it didn't seem inappropriate to change her name from Givenchy to Starship Phoenix!"

BR DANTON

Bay Quarter Pony stallion, CM by Laura Behning in the late 1970s

Champion Color

Holly Carson writes, "Danton was done by Laura Hornick Behning in the late '70s. The BR in Danton's name stands for Laura's Brook Ridge Stables.

"He came into my life last year as a purchase from Deb Carlson. Deb found him in the mid '80s while looking for Laura's work and purchased him from Leslie Hughes (he was at least 10 years old then). He came with many pictures so Deb opted to photo show him where he did very well.

"I jumped at the chance to own him when Deb put him up for sale, and purchase him I did. He stayed with Deb to debut at the VCMEC 2016 live show where he was well received, placing Champ in the People's Choice 1960s/1970s Vintage Pony Division. All the while I don't think anyone noticed he had a broken front leg. Deb positioned him so you couldn't even see it.

"Since he is one of my prized possessions his leg has been professionally fixed and he has a place of honor among my Vintage stable.

"I'm so pleased he is also doing well in the VCMEC Online Series.

"Danton will be returning to VCMEC 2018 so come over and say 'Hi.' It's always a fun day to show Vintage.

"PS. Thank you Ardith and Judges (and all the people behind the scenes) for your hard work for us to enjoy these shows."

MON NAFA RANI

Grey Arabian mare, CM by Sarah
Minkiewicz in 1988

1980s Overall Champion Breed and Overall Reserve Champion
Workmanship

~ and ~

JAMIL MHURATT

Grey Arabian stallion, CM by Sarah
Minkiewicz in 1988

1980s Overall Champion Color

Cheryl Ridge writes, "Thirty years ago, in 1988, Sarah Minkiewicz (Breunig) created full sister and brother: Mon Nafa Rani and Jamil Mhuratt. Unmistakably Breyer Proud Arab Mare and Stallion -- models which endeared themselves to many.

"I think about how increasing numbers of people these days are embracing the notions of recycling, upcycling and repurposing in their everyday lives. And then I think about how some very creative and skilled people in the model horse hobby over the years have taken old, damaged or pre-loved Breyer models and worked their magic. This very show series represents rebirth and repurposing at its finest!

"With 2018 marking the 30th birthday of my beloved Minkiewicz Arabs, I thought I should honor the occasion with an up to date picture of them (I carefully and nervously brought them out of hiding and dressed them in the Arabian halters Sarah had made for them originally). Happy 30th Birthday, Rani and Jamil!

"Please revisit the Victory Lap / Winter

2017 and Autumn 2017 issues for more background information on Mon Nafa Rani and Jamil Mhuratt. Thank you."

BLOODBATH HIGHWAY

Dun overo Paint/Mustang-cross gelding, CM by Carol Williams in 1987

1980s Overall Champion Workmanship

Ardith Carlton writes, "Corky Visminas owns this dynamic guy, and wrote about her beloved rogue in the Winter 2017 issue's Victory Lap. There, she mentioned light-heartedly that he was 'victim of an attempted kidnapping at the 1996 Model Horse Jamboree in California.' That really wasn't a joke, though--and since he was lucky enough to earn this new turn in the spotlight, Corky asked me to share the details of the attempted theft of her horse.

"Having chaired and staffed NAMHSA's first-ever North American Nationals in 1995, Corky and I were eager to have our qualified horses compete in the next one, which was a serious trip away in California. We both worked for Hoof Beats magazine in Ohio then, and only one of us at a time could get away for such a long trip, so Corky nobly stayed home while I showed both her gang and mine at NAN and the next day's huge Model Horse Jamboree.

"Bloodbath Highway spends most of his time off of his removable stand, lying down on a cushiony cloth. Being a remade Breyer Trad. Black Beauty, he's one long fella, and before his class at Jamboree he was resting on the end of my table, beside one of the traffic aisles in that vast ballroom.

"Several rings were running at once, and after going up to retrieve my OF H-R large Amir, Escaflowne, and his ribbon, I was moving carefully back down the aisle toward my table with that precious cargo-- just in time to see, a few people ahead in the traffic flow, a girl smoothly pluck Bloodbath Highway from the end of my table and keep on going.

"No OF H-R large Amir has ever moved faster! Suddenly I was beside the girl, telling her 'That's my horse, thank you,' and taking Bloodbath Highway out of her hands without any resistance. She hesitated, and for a moment our eyes met; she was a young teen-looking girl, and she looked terrified. Then she hurried on, empty-handed, back into the crowd.

"I was too stunned to do much more than bring both horses back to the table, and then sit and shake as what had almost happened hit me. The incident put show-ers in our area of the floor on the alert, and after I let show hostess Sheryl Leis-ure at the opposite end of the bustling ballroom know about the theft attempt, her security staff kept a sharp eye out.

"Bloodbath Highway made it safely home to Corky. And since then, adrenaline rushes like that have been few and far between for me, whew!"

QUICK COMET

Bay Standardbred mare, CM by Julie Froelich in 1983

1980s Overall Reserve Champion Breed

In the Winter 2017 issue, Ardith Carlton wrote about her cherished portrait model of the Standardbred racemare she grew up with. (If this model looks extra-familiar, it may be because she's featured in the VCMEC Model Horse Re-View's mast-head logo each issue!)

This issue, Ardith adds, "Lexington, Kentucky is the home of The Red Mile, America's most prestigious harness racing track. The real Quick Comet never made it there, so the chance to compete in Lexington with the model Comet was always a special thrill--especially the 1994 Breyerfest Open Performance Show.

"Wearing a harness made just for her by Susan Bensema-Young, and pulling a sulky made just for her by Dick Eighmey, with a Jan Wagner portrait doll of top harness driver John Campbell aboard, Quick Comet won that show's Harness class and then, after a long-deliberated judge-back, was awarded the Reserve Grand Championship, too!

"But the fun wasn't done! Staff of the harness racing weekly magazine Horseman & Fair World happened to also be at the Kentucky Horse Park that day. After seeing Quick Comet's big win, they shot photos, interviewed me about Comet and the model horse hobby, and featured her as a model ambassador for the Standardbred breed in their next issue. What a dream-come-true of a day that was!

"I've really missed showing with Comet, and am so happy for the opportunity to do it again here in the VCMEC Online World Championships. Thanks so much to all the judges!"

THE AFRICAN SUN

Bay tobiano Paint mare, CM by Carol Williams in 1987

1980s Overall Reserve Champion Color

Ardith Carlton writes, "Originally named Vansanita, this dynamic remade Breyer Polo Pony barrelled off a magazine page right into my heart in 1989...and eventually, astonishingly, into my hands!

"In the Feb./ March 1991 issue of The Hobby Horse News, I recalled that first encounter in my Inside Straight column, titled 'The Test of the Press: Do We Show

Them Our Best?' Here's that section, courtesy of THHN and archived at Kirsten Wellman's www.modelhorsehistory.com:

"It was a mid-December morning when I stumbled across what is widely considered the best magazine article on our hobby that has been written to date. Before sitting down to read the December 1989 issue of Paint Horse Journal in depth, I was doing the customary, cursory flip through the pages in search of snazzy patterns to transplant onto models. Suddenly, an oddly shiny pate caught my eye. 'Heh, what a toupee—that guy looks like a Ken doll,' I snickered, then did a double-take. It was a doll...seated on a rock in the middle of a stream, holding the reins of Rio Rondo's multi-Grand model Paint stallion, Cheyenne Ridge! In quickly glancing through, I'd been completely fooled by the model horse.

"The article, 'Model Makers Compete in Scaled-Down Paint Horse Shows,' was three pages long and sported five tremendous black-and-white photos of Rio Rondo model Paint horses 'in action.' The dramatic photos of startlingly realistic models, tack, and dolls must have instantly snatched the attention of even the most casual readers and lured them into the text, where author Jean Lindgren captured their respect for keeps.

"In 26 clear and concise inches of type, Lindgren profiled the American Model Pinto-Colored Horse association and artist Carol Williams, and explained the hobby to our real-horse counterparts. No cutesy gimmickry, no gushing or giggling. 'The premise underlying model horse showing, and all the time, energy, and work that goes into it,' she wrote, 'is to encourage people to discover their own abilities and develop them to their maximum potential. Knowing that you can do something well does good things for a person, and that knowledge carries over into everyday life.'

"...Jean Lindgren's article was a boon to our hobby in several ways. It was a well-written and strikingly illustrated synopsis of our hobby at its very best. It made us look great and sound like respectable adults. It piqued the interest of readers, and attracted prospective participants to our ranks. And a hobbyist could show the article to anyone and say with genuine pride, 'This is what I do for fun.'"

"Later, I was thrilled to be able to buy from Carol Williams both Cheyenne Ridge [redone by Carol as a bay overo, Crusher Joe, the 1996 NAMHSA NAN National Champion Paint Stallion] and Vansanita, who came with her own Rio Rondo Western saddle. Renamed The African Sun after one of my favorite manga, she put that saddle to huge use, grabbing performance Grand Championships both live and photo. This mare is all grit and no quit, and I'm so happy that she's done so well here in VCMEC!"

NIATROSS

Bay Standardbred stallion, CM by Lisa Rivera in 1993

Ardith Carlton wrote about this portrait model of the legendary pacer in the Winter 2017 issue. Check it out!

LE COMTE DE MONTE CRISTO

Chestnut Belgian stallion, CM by Lisa Rivera in 1995

1990s Overall Champion Breed and Reserve Champion Color

Cheryl Monroe writes, "Le Comte De Monte Cristo, a.k.a. Cinnabar's Conquest, is a drastic CM Breyer Clydesdale Mare! He is another Lisa Shepard that I have wished to own, for YEARS!"

"He was previously owned by Robin Clark under his original name of Cinnabar's Conquest, and she acquired him directly from Lisa. I was SO happy she was letting him go! I have always loved his simple majestic pose and his superbly shaded copper red chestnut coloring. He did very well in Robin's showstring, and has begun anew in mine. I hope his career under a new name and owner can be successful!

"He is named after a real Belgian from the turn of the 19th century and is an ancestor of Congolaise, a famous Belgian stallion. His name translates from French to the English 'The Count of Monte Cristo,' the book by Alexandre Dumas. I've always liked the story, so naming him after the title character was simple. So pleased others like him too!"

CAMELOT'S HOT T' TROT

Dapple grey Miniature Horse stallion, CM by Lisa Rivera in 1993

1990s Overall Reserve Champion Breed

Cheryl Monroe writes, "Directly from his maker, Lisa Shepard, this little bundle of joy has been a favorite of mine! Camelot's Hot T' Trot is a drastic CM Breyer Merrylegs that was created in 1993. Such a sassy little fella, he needs a cart and harness some day too! He never fails to place somewhere in the ribbons, that is, when I've actually shown him! He SO reminded me of the mini that used to live down the road from us, I pleaded with Lisa to sell him to me, and I think she reluctantly gave in. His color is subtle, the hair is so wispy, the little man with the attitude of the big cheese! Thank you to all judges who have appreciated him!"

BED OF ROSES

Leopard Appaloosa mare, CM by Lee Francis in 1993

1990s Overall Reserve Champion Workmanship

Regine Nikolaidis writes, "In the '90s I did a lot of live shows all over Germany and it must have been the mid '90s when I first met Bed of Roses at a show, then owned by a friend who I think got her right from Lee [Francis]. Looking into that adorable face I instantly fell in love with her and she is a CM Lady Phase (which is one of my favorite Breyers) too AND a leopard Appy on top of that! You just gotta love Lee's 'spotted beasties.' :-) Well, I can't remember exactly when, but it took quite some time until she finally moved to my Sun Cloud Stables, together with her foal Rockies Turn Rose (also by Lee, but she's a resin so no VCMEC for her). But what a moment when they arrived here!!!! Those two are just cute beyond words and I'm still so happy to have them here looking at me from their place right across from me. :-)

"I'm a big fan of Lee Francis's models, especially the Appies and Paints, and I'm still so glad that I was able to add a few of her treasures to my stable while they were not yet vintage. Those customized beauties of the '90s still firmly hold my heart and I'm really thankful that I was in the hobby during those times!

"On that note: a BIG THANKS again to you for this marvelous show!!!! I really enjoyed seeing all the wonderful models and of course I'm really proud about my little 'beasties.' :-)

"Since I couldn't find any old pix and I wondered if you might want to include one of Bed of Roses with her foal, I took a new one today. Sorry that the pix is not very good, but we finally got a lot of snow to-night and I only have a little digital camera which doesn't seem to deal too well with bright snow."

Leg 6 Judge Kay Myers writes,

"Here's a fun fact--two of the horses entered (at least two) were among the very first Customized (or R/R/H) models that I had ever seen.

"There was a Classic Magazine article about the ['78] Model Horse Congress show in the late 1970s. The article featured a photo of Kathleen Maestas with a table of her sales horses behind her. I had never heard of anyone remarking a model horse and her models looked so amazing!

part of the epic collection of Marney J. Walerius--see our Summer and Autumn 2017 issues!]

"Here's a link to my website with all the pages of the Classic Magazine article--it's the fourth one down. And my life was never the same...

Coming Up Next: The Crowning of the VCMEC 2016-17 Online World Champions!

It's been a model horse show series unlike any other, gathering vintage customs from around the world (Australia, Canada, Germany, Japan, Sweden, the UK, and the USA) to compete under an array of judges to determine the best of the best: the 2016-17 VCMEC Online World Championships!

The next issue of VCMEC Model Horse Re-View, slated for May 31, will feature the results with a World Champion, Reserve World Champion, and Top Ten named in each class, and then Breed, Color, and Workmanship World Champions and Reserves in each of the three (1960s/1970s, 1980s, and 1990s) divisions, and finally, an Overall World Champion and Reserve for each of the three divisions.

And talk about loot--gorgeous awards are on the way from Hodges Badge Company! The class World Champions and Reserves will each receive beautiful double-layered ribbons. The Breed, Color, and Workmanship World Champions and Reserves will also receive lovely rosettes. And then there are the acrylic trophies for the Overall World Champion and Reserve in each division--check out a (slightly censored) Overall Reserve World Champion trophy at right!

Best of all, we'll have these awards on hand at VCMEC Live on May 6 to present in person to attending owners of the winning vintage customs, weeks before the next issue comes out with the results! For those not able to attend VCMEC Live, awards will be mailed in early June.

Since next issue promises to be wall-to-wall results, now is a good time to explain how the VCMEC Online World Champions were determined!

The World Champion and Reserve in each class were determined by horses' placings in that class. Horses had to have competed in at least 4 legs of the series, unless shown by an entrant who judged one of the last 4 legs but did not enter the first 2 legs, in which case the horse must have competed in its class in at least 3 legs of the series. An exception was made if a horse was entered in the class but was not judged due to the judge having created the horse.

In each class, the World Champion, Reserve World Champion, and Top Ten were determined by the average of each horse's top 4 (or 3) placings in that class. (Honorable Mention [HM] was counted as 11th place, and being unplaced [UP] was counted as 15th place.) If tied, the amount of championships each of the tied horses won in that show during the series was used to break the tie. (One Reserve was considered half a championship, an Overall Championship of the show was counted as 5 championships, and Overall Reserve was worth 3 championships.) If the tied horses won the same amount of championships in the show, the tie stayed if a World Championship or Reserve was at stake. Otherwise, for the rest of the Top Ten, the number of wins was then used to break a tie. (In the example at top, horses are in their Top Ten order; WC is World Champion and RWC is Reserve World Champion. The tie for 3rd in the Top Ten was broken by a class win; the tie could not be broken for 7th.)

An aside: We didn't require a horse to win a class to be able to be the World Champion in that class. We also only provided for amount of championships, not also class wins, to be tie-breakers for World Champions and Reserves. Next time...!

The Breed, Color, and Workmanship World Champions and Reserves were determined by the number of championships each horse won in that show during the series. In the event of a tie, the average of each horse's top 4 (or 3) placings in its class in that show was used to break the tie. If the tied horses had same average, the tie stayed.

Although we had planned early on to determine each division's Overall World Champions and Reserves by average placings in all classes, that skewed toward horses that were the only entrant in a class. We ultimately came up with a more well-rounded method. First, the Breed, Color, and Workmanship World Champions and Reserves, and all others that were Overall Champions or Reserves during the series, were ranked by their combined average placings, not breaking any ties. After that, the horses were ranked by total amount of championships won, not breaking any ties. The horse with the best average ranking between those two lists was the Overall Grand, and the runner-up was Reserve. Ties were broken by the horses' overall amount of championships.

It was weeks of number-crunching, but so exciting as the results emerged--and we hope you'll enjoy them, too! Thanks to all for entering and letting your vintage stars shine!
