

Erin is a Licensed Veterinary Technician who grew up in Wakefield, RI. She graduated with a bachelor's degree in veterinary technology from Wilson College. She started working for Central Kentucky Veterinary Center in 2008.

When not at work Erin enjoys eventing with her horse Ralphie, reading, shooting sporting clays, shopping for shoes and getting her nails done. She also enjoys spending time with her dog Lenny.