

Please note: This is no longer a bus trip — but we will carpool to Berkeley

U.C. Berkeley Botanical Gardens

Monday, October 16, 2017

This trip is to visit a 34-acre botanical gardens that boasts one of the most diverse landscapes in the world with over 10,000 types of plants, including many rare and endangered species.

U.C. Berkeley prides itself in furthering conservation of plant diversity, and promoting public understanding and appreciation of plants and the natural environment.

Schedule:

Meet at the RMA Building at 7:45 a.m.

We will carpool to La Sierra Park at 1100 La Sierra Drive, Sacramento, to meet up with Arden Park Club members

Our tour begins at 11 a.m. and will focus on Plants of the World.

Lunch:

Spengers Fish Grotto — a well-known seafood restaurant in Berkeley

Then:

Visit Orchard Nursery and Florist in Lafayette

Orchard's motto is "Because Life is Beautiful...Plants are our passion." They also have a gift shop selling jewelry, candles, wreaths, glassware, potpourri, and more.

New cost: $10 for entry into gardens plus whatever you spend on lunch (or buy at the nursery)
