

Pioneer Lady Passes After Long Illness

See 16
1947

Mrs. Emma Watterworth, 84, widow of Eugene Watterworth, died Tuesday evening in Scheurer Hospital, Pigeon, where she had been a patient for nine months.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p. m. Friday in Elkton Methodist Church with the Rev. W. Winston Thomas, pastor of Chandler Presbyterian Church, officiating. Burial will be in Colfax Cemetery, Bad Axe. James Colgan is in charge of funeral arrangements.

Mrs. Watterworth was born Emma Hay on August 9, 1863, in Ontario and at the age of 14, she moved with her parents to Chandler Township. In 1885 she was united in marriage with Eugene Watterworth. They lived in Chandler Township until 1926 when they moved to Elkton. She was a member of the Chandler Methodist Church.

Mr. Watterworth preceded her in death April 30, 1939, and a daughter, Mrs. Charles O'Connor passed away in April of this year.

Surviving are three sons, Bert and Fred of Caseville, and Cecil of Elkton; two daughters, Mrs. Glenn Bedford, Elkton and Mrs. Clara Malpass of Pigeon; one sister, Miss Lottie Hay, a patient in Scheurer Hospital; one brother, James Hay, Elkton; 25 grandchildren and 19 great grandchildren.