

The Holy Land holds profound significance for United Methodists, as it does for all Christians, Jews, and Muslims. Christians can “walk where Jesus walked” and perhaps feel a connection never before experienced.

For decades, millions of Christians have come to the Holy Land only as spectators, touring holy sites as they would museums, not knowing that these are living places of worship and never realizing that their pilgrimage was missing something very important: meaningful interaction with descendants of the original disciples of Christ who have kept our faith alive in the land of Christ's birth.

We urge you to use United Methodist Church resolutions* regarding Palestine/Israel, to live our values when you visit this remarkable land and become a blessing to the people who call it home.

Tell your tour organizer it is important to you that your tour comply as much as possible with church guidelines. See questions on this page to help you.

Questions for United Methodists to Ask

Whether you are planning a tour or joining someone else's group, these questions can help you discern how well the tour will follow United Methodist guidelines for visiting the Holy Land. You may be able to find the answers in the tour description and itinerary, or you can ask the tour provider.

- Will we have opportunities to visit and worship with Palestinian Christians?
- Will we spend at least one night in Bethlehem and have opportunities to hear from local people beyond the tourist sites and shopping?
- Can you assure us that we will not be using hotels or restaurants located in the settlements?
- Will we be patronizing Palestinian businesses throughout the tour? Will we be using a Palestinian hotel if we stay in East Jerusalem?
- Will we visit any UMC Advance Projects?

Come and See

"In order to understand our reality, we say to the Churches: Come and see. We will fulfill our role to make known to you the truth of our reality, receiving you as pilgrims coming to us to pray, carrying a message of peace, love and reconciliation. You will know the facts and the people of this land, Palestinians and Israelis alike."

Responsible tourism with diverse tours

On our website, UMKR has a diverse selection of recommended tour providers, and we often post their upcoming trips. These visits range from introductory tours including biblical sites for first-time visitors to intensive studies of the current realities in Palestine/Israel, and many of them will combine those focuses. Some are organized by UM agencies or Christian groups, others are interfaith or otherwise comprised. All of them provide significant opportunities to know the people of the Holy Land and learn firsthand about their lives.

These tours will fulfill the spirit of the UMC guidelines, and every tour UMKR recommends will offer you the chance to deeply experience the Holy Land as a responsible visitor.
