

Being the eyes, ears, hands, and feet of Jesus.

*As the rain and the snow come down from heaven,
and do not return to it without watering the earth
and making it bud and flourish, so that it yields seed for the sower and bread for the eater,
so is my word that goes out from my mouth;
it will not return to me empty but will accomplish the purpose for which I sent it.
Isaiah 55:10-11 (NIV)*

This month I am celebrating ten years of being involved with Durango Pregnancy Center, so I have been thinking, musing, and reflecting. . .alot!

Last year was an amazing year of walking with our clients. And, then I remember! There have been numerous clients in year's past who have walked through our doors and invited us to walk with them through a significant time of their life. Their lives, their stories, their history have transformed my life. I am not the same person now and I like who I have become!

Here is one story that a client wrote up recently and wanted me to me share! It is an example of how a community of people makes a difference in the life of one.

We love it when gatherings of God's people are creative! Technology has a way opening up all sorts of possibilities!

DJ Jergensen, pastor of Durango Vineyard, recently stopped by the center and had a creative, impromptu conversation with Valerie! Check out the video below!

Bernadette was a client of Durango Pregnancy Center several years ago with her first born Axel. At one point she knitted baby booties as a way of "paying it forward" for future DPC clients! She moved out of state, shortly after her first born, and she keeps in touch, periodically. It is always a blessing to hear from her and the awesome way life has opened up to her! Thank you Bernadette!

Her mother did not know what she was going to do with a baby - she had other plans! Now this little one is almost three years old and the smile on her mother's face, every time she comes in to DPC for a visit, tells us all we need to know.
